1) Introduction

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) as an activity is initiated with the aim to embrace responsibility for the company's actions and encourage a positive impact through its activities on the environment, consumers, communities, stakeholders and all other members of the public sphere who may also be considered as stakeholders. CSR policy functions as a guiding principle whereby CSR objectives and goals are well defined with specific mention of verticals where planned activities can be carried out in a project mode. The implementation plans are worked out with processes for built-in for monitoring and evaluation of the activities to ensure active compliance and governance with the spirit of the law, ethical standards, and prescribed norms. NSDL's CSR projects/programs/activities are executed in a manner wherein the target beneficiaries are not based on any caste, creed, religion, region, language or any other criteria which negates basic tenets of humanity. NSDL also strives to involve / engage its employees/ employees of group companies in order to nurture a culture of "paying back to society" which leaves them with a sense of fulfilment of their social commitments.

2) Philosophy of NSDL

NSDL believes that the CSR projects/programs/initiatives should have a positive yet sustainable impact on the communities and hence, undertakes the need based as well as impact driven projects/programs. Through CSR projects/programs, NSDL shall endeavor to enable socio-economic empowerment of the beneficiaries and communities at large. The company believes in providing efficient and cost effective services to the users of the system and it endeavors to make a positive impact not only on the lives of the marginalized and disadvantaged section of the society but also on the lives of its stakeholder to the extent feasible. It aims to work towards contributing in the building an equitable and inclusive society where all the stakeholders are provided an opportunity for economic and social growth and development.

3) CSR Guiding Principles

The CSR initiatives will be undertaken by taking into consideration the critical national, state level and community level gaps/needs in line with the Company's core CSR focus areas/themes. Here, the community is taken as the actual geographical where the need based projects/programs shall be implemented.

Primarily, the Company shall prefer the areas in and around its business operations to execute the projects/programs to ensure effective and smooth implementation as well as monitoring of projects/programs.

The CSR projects/programs will be directed towards the underprivileged and marginalized sections of the community and thereby enabling socio-economic development. The activities will be undertaken in a project mode with processes in place for regular periodic monitoring, measuring the deliverables and ensuring long term impact and sustainability of the initiatives.

4) Areas for activities

The theme of the CSR activities are in pursuance of the activities listed in Schedule VII of Section 135 of Companies Act, 2013 and any amendment introduced in due course.

The Company shall undertake its CSR programs/projects/activities/initiatives as per the list of items enumerated in Schedule VII as below:
