SEBI's directive for Mandatory requirement of PAN

SEBI has vide its Circular No. CIR/MRD/DP/22/2010 dated July 29, 2010 informed regarding the mandatory requirement of Permanent Account Number (PAN) for all transactions in the securities market. SEBI has specified that in order to ensure better compliance with the Know Your Client (KYC) norms, it has been decided that with effect from August 16, 2010 depository accounts which are PAN non-compliant shall also be 'suspended for credit' other than the credits arising out of automatic corporate actions. It is clarified that other credits including credits from IPO/FPO/Rights issue, off-market transactions or any secondary market transactions shall not be allowed into such accounts. Participants are advised to ensure compliance with the requirement and communicate the same to all the concerned Beneficial Owners.

This has been informed to Participants vide Circular No. NSDL/POLICY/2010/0085 dated July 30, 2010.

Facility to Auto-reset password on IDeAS

NSDL had enhanced its IDeAS facility to facilitate Users to capture or modify their email addresses registered on IDeAS. NSDL has further provided a new feature to Users of IDeAS who have forgotten their passwords or have entered wrong passwords (upto three attempts) to auto-reset the password on IDeAS. This feature is made available for Users exclusively availing IDeAS facility. The auto-reset password facility is not available to those Users who have subscribed for both IDeAS as well as SPEED-e facility.

Further details about this facility are mentioned in Circular Nos. NSDL/POLICY/2010/0057 dated May 25, 2010 and NSDL/POLICY/2010/0074 dated July 1, 2010.

Conversion of existing Mutual Fund units represented by Statement of Account into dematerialised form through Participants

TOPIC OF INTEREST

Know more about Application Supported by Blocked Amount (ASBA)

17. Do I necessarily need to have a DP account with the SCSB where I intend to submit the ASBA application?

No. Investors need not necessarily have their DP account with the SCSB, where they are submitting the ASBA form.

18. Can I submit my ASBA to a broker as is being done in the present issue process applying through cheque?

You are required to submit ASBA to the SCSBs only.

19. Can I apply in an issue through ASBA facility and through “normal existing system of payment through cheque” in an issue?

No. An investor can apply either through ASBA or through existing system of payment through cheque. If an applicant applies through both, ASBA as well as non-ASBA then both the applications having the same PAN, will be treated as multiple application and hence will be rejected.

20. Are the bids submitted through ASBA and uploaded in the electronic bidding system of the stock exchange, in case of public issue through book building, reflect in the demand graphs displayed in the website of stock exchanges?

Yes. The bids received through ASBA mode will also be reflected in the demand graphs displayed in the website of stock exchanges.

21. Who is responsible for errors in the data uploaded in the electronic bidding system in case of public issue?

In case there is an error in the data furnished in the application form submitted by investor, the investor shall be responsible. In case there is an error by SCSB in entering the data in the electronic bidding system of the stock exchanges, the SCSB shall be responsible.

22. Will I get the acknowledgement of receipt for applications submitted through ASBA from the SCSB?

Yes. The SCSB shall give a counterfoil as an acknowledgement at the time of submission of ASBA and also the order number, generated at the time of uploading the application details, if sought by the investors in case of need.
