Transfer of Shares to Demat Account of IEPF Authority

Participants are hereby informed that, in terms of Section 124 (6) of Companies Act, 2013 and the Rules notified thereunder, the shares in respect of which dividend has not been paid or claimed for a period of seven consecutive years or more, were required to be transferred by the company to the Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority (IEPF). As per the Rule 6 amended vide Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority (Accounting, Audit, Transfer and Refund) Amendment Rules, 2017, where the seven year period provided under sub-section (5) of section 124 is completed during September 7, 2016 to May 31, 2017, the due date for transfer of such shares by companies was May 31, 2017.

All companies were required to transfer such shares to IEPF, whether held in dematerialized form or physical form, to the demat account of IEPF Authority by way of corporate action. In this context, Participants are requested to take note that as per Rule 6 (3) (b) as amended vide Investor Education and Protection Fund Authority (Accounting, Audit, Transfer and Refund) Amendment Rules, 2017, in case, where there is a specific order of Court or Tribunal or Statutory Authority restraining any transfer of such shares and payment of dividend or where such shares are pledged or hypothecated under the provisions of the Depositories Act, 1996 or shares already been transferred under sub-rule (1) of above rules, the company shall not transfer such shares to the Fund. The company is required to furnish a statement of shares not transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund (Form No. IEPF – 3), which inter-alia requires the company to attach order of court/tribunal/statutory authority specifying the date of such order.

Accordingly, NSDL will be adding new freeze reason codes from '06' to '33' to make the freeze reasons more specific and to facilitate transfer of securities to IEPF Authority.
