Clarification regarding reason code and consideration for off-market and Inter-Depository Instructions

NSDL had advised its Participants that the entry of reason code and consideration (wherever applicable) in the DPM will be optional till April 1, 2015 after which it shall be mandatory to enter such reason and consideration (wherever applicable) in the DPM for off-market and Inter-Depository Instructions. In view of this, for Participants seeking clarification as to whether the requirement is applicable for delivery instructions in electronic form also, NSDL has hereby clarified that entering reason code and consideration (wherever applicable) will become mandatory from April 2, 2015 for all off market and Inter Depository instructions irrespective of whether received by Participant in physical or electronic form.

Simplification of procedure to be followed for change of address

Based on the suggestion/ feedback received from Participants for change of address, procedure for change of address is simplified & revised as given below:

1. While processing requests for change of address received from Clients, Participants should obtain the following documents:
 - a) A written application for change of address from the Client (In case of joint holdings, all holders must sign the application and in case of non-individual, authorised signatory(ies) must sign);
 - b) Proof of new address alongwith the original document of the new address for verification.
2. The Participant should verify the signature of the Client on the application with the signature of the Client available with the Participant. Further, the document pertaining to new address should be verified and attested and thereafter record the change of address in the DPM System.
3. In case of change (addition/ deletion/ modification) in the landmark details for the address which is already captured in the DPM System, Participants may limit the changes to the landmark details, after obtaining a request from the Clients on a plain paper, which is signed by all the holder(s) (in case of joint holdings). Participants are advised to note that the address of the Client captured in the DPM System, as mentioned in the proof of address, should not change and only limit the change in the landmark details.
4. After effecting the change of address in the DPM System, the Participant should send a communication to the Client, confirming the change of address, to the old and the new addresses.
5. The Participant shall upload the updated information of the Client on the system of KRA.

Discontinuation of Digital Signature Certificate issued from NSDL CA Website

Participants were earlier informed to obtain at least 2 DSCs or 50% of total DSCs before August 16, 2014 from approved certifying authorities' viz., e-Mudhra Limited or Sify Technologies Limited to access DPM system. Further, as Participants are aware that NSDL had discontinued the issuance of DSC from NSDL CA website with effect from August 18, 2014, Participants are hereby informed that DSC issued from NSDL CA website will be valid till March 31, 2015 or expiry date of the DSC, whichever is earlier. Hence, those Participants who are using DSC issued from NSDL CA website will not be able to access DPM system after the aforesaid date i.e. March 31, 2015. In view of this, Participants are requested to procure DSC from any of the abovementioned approved certifying authority and submit the screen shots of DSC alongwith requisite documents to NSDL for mapping of DSC with their DP ID for accessing DPM system.

Modification in name of the account holder in DPM – error by Participant

Participants have represented seeking procedure to be followed in case of a data entry error by the Participant while opening an account or while effecting the change in name of the account holder who is an individual or non-individual. Accordingly, Participants are hereby informed that in case a Participant commits a typographical error while entering name of the Client in the

DPM (which is noticed after activation of the account) or while processing the request for change in the name, it may be corrected by the Participant as prescribed below:

- a) Participant should examine the Account Opening Form, KYC Form, request for change of name and other documents submitted by the Clients/ authorized signatory (ies) and ascertain that a data entry error was indeed made while entering name of the Client in DPM.
- b) Once Participant has satisfied itself about the data entry error, it may modify the name of the Client suitably in DPM. The reason should be mentioned as 'Participant error' while making this rectification in DPM. The necessary system changes will be informed in next DPM version release.
- c) Correction in such cases may be undertaken when error is brought to the notice of Participant by client or by auditor of Participant or is detected by Participant staff. After making required correction, intimation should be sent to the client along-with updated Client Master Report.

Participants are further advised to inform their internal auditor to conduct 100% audit of all cases involving change in name as mentioned above.

NSDL CAS

NSDL Consolidated Account Statement (CAS) is a single statement of all your investments in the securities market. NSDL CAS includes investments in equity shares, preference shares, mutual funds, bonds, debentures, securitized instruments, money market instruments and government securities held in demat. All investments held in single or joint names with you as the sole/first holder are a part of the NSDL CAS.

NSDL CAS is part of the overall vision to enable all financial assets to be held electronically in a single demat account, which was articulated by the Hon'ble Finance Minister in his budget speech of July 2014. As a step in this direction, SEBI has introduced this Consolidated Account Statement for all securities assets by consolidating demat accounts and mutual fund folios.

NSDL CAS offers you unparalleled convenience in keeping track of your investment portfolio. You can easily monitor the investments you hold, their value and portfolio composition. It will help you in developing strategy to manage your investments better
