SMS Alert facility made mandatory for depository accounts operated by Power of Attorney

In the meeting held between SEBI, Depositories and Stock Exchanges on April 6, 2009, it was decided that SMS Alerts should be made mandatory for accounts operated by Power of Attorney (POA). Thus, w.e.f. June 1, 2009, SMS Alert facility is mandatory with respect to:

- (i) new depository accounts with POA; and
- (ii) existing depository accounts (in case the accountholders opt for POA in future).

The accountholders in above cases will have to provide the mobile numbers to the Participants and subscribe for SMS Alert facility. In case the accountholder does not have a mobile phone, he/she may provide mobile number of any person as per his / her discretion.

SMS Alert facility will not be mandatory for the accounts held by non-individuals, NRIs and foreign nationals until further advice from SEBI as NSDL has referred the matter to SEBI.
