6. PARTICIPANTS

6.1. ADMISSION OF PARTICIPANTS

6.1.1. Any person desiring to become a Participant shall file an application with the Securities and Exchange Board of India through the Depository, in the format specified by the Securities and Exchange Board of India together with the fees specified by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

6.1.2. The application shall be submitted in the specified form and manner and shall be accompanied by the fees, security deposits and/or such other sums of money as specified by the Depository under the Business Rules.

6.1.3. Every application shall be dealt with by the Depository within thirty days of receipt of such application and if the Depository is satisfied, it shall forward the same to the Securities and Exchange Board of India with the Depository's recommendations.

6.1.4. An application which is not complete in all respects and does not conform to the instructions specified shall be rejected. The Depository may, before rejecting any application, give to the applicant in writing, an opportunity to remove within such time as specified by the Executive Committee, the objection indicated by the Depository.

6.1.5. The Depository may require the applicant to furnish such further information or clarification as required within such time as it may specify. On failure to provide any information within the time provided or such further time as may be granted the application will be deemed to have been rejected.

6.1.6. The Managing Director of the Depository may approve or reject any application as he may deem fit in his absolute discretion. The applicant may appeal to the Executive Committee against the decision of the Managing Director and the decision of the Executive Committee in this regard shall be final.

6.1.7. The Executive Committee shall have the right to call upon the applicant to make additional contributions towards funds, and to pay such fees, deposits, such additional security deposit in cash or kind, to furnish any additional guarantee or to require the deposit of any monies in respect of contribution to funds including building fund, computerisation fund, indemnity fund, insurance fund or such other funds as the Depository may specify from time to time.

6.2. ADMISSION CRITERIA

6.2.1. The applicant(s) shall be eligible to become Participant(s) in the Depository, provided they meet the minimum criteria laid down under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996, and the eligibility criteria specified below :-

 Explanation: for the purpose of determining whether the applicant has adequate network, the applicant shall submit a network certificate (including the computation thereof) based on the audited books of account (in the format which may be specified by the Depository in the Business Rules) duly certified by a chartered accountant and submitted to the Depository;
- v. the applicant shall be required to furnish details of its Board of Directors/ authorised officials, who shall be responsible for acting on behalf of the Participant;

Notes:

⁷Amended w.e.f. October 17, 2008. Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 6.2.1(i) read as follows:
 6.2.1 (i) the applicant shall be required to furnish information and details of its business history, which shall be for a minimum period of three years; provided that the Depository may, if it is satisfied that it would be in the interest of the investors and that the applicant is otherwise eligible to become a Participant, waive this requirement of three years;

⁸Amended w.e.f. September 16, 2009. Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 6.2.1(iv) was amended on March 19, 2008, which read as follows:

6.2.1(iv) the Participant (both prospective and existing) in the category of stock broker has a minimum network of rupees three crore. Provided further that in case of non banking finance company (NBFC) and a registrar to an issue or share transfer agent, minimum network as specified in the SEBI Regulations will apply.

Provided, however, that if the Participant is already acting as a Participant on March 14, 2008, it will be required to fulfill this requirement by March 31, 2009.

Explanation: for the purpose of determining whether the applicant has adequate network, the applicant shall submit a network certificate (including the computation thereof) based on the audited books of account (in the format which may be specified by the Depository in the Business Rules) duly certified by a chartered accountant and submitted to the Depository;

Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 6.2.1(iv) was amended on October 19, 2005, which read as follows:

6.2.1(iv) the Participant (both prospective and existing) in the category of stock broker has a minimum network of rupees one crore. Provided further that in case of non-banking finance company (NBFC) and a registrar to an issue or share transfer agent, minimum network as specified in the SEBI Regulations will apply.

Explanation: for the purpose of determining whether the applicant has adequate network, the applicant shall submit a network certificate (including the computation thereof) based on the audited books of account (in the format which may be specified by the Depository in the Business Rules) duly certified by a chartered accountant and submitted to the Depository;

Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 6.2.1(iv) read as follows:

6.2.1 (iv) the applicant has a minimum net worth of rupees one crore.

Explanation: for the purpose of determining whether the applicant has adequate network, the applicant shall submit a network certificate (including the computation thereof) based on the audited books of account (in the format which may be specified by the Depository in the Business Rules) duly certified by a chartered accountant and submitted to the Depository.

- vi. the Depository may conduct entrance examinations and / or interviews, to examine the knowledge of the Participant (and its staff) related to the operational, functional and technical aspects of the Depository. The Depository may also make it mandatory for the Participant to appoint a compliance officer, who shall interact with the Depository on behalf of the Participant for compliance with the Bye Laws and Business Rules, resolving, redressal of investors'/ clients' grievances;
- vii. the applicant should have adequate office space exclusively for Depository operations. The applicant should also furnish details of his main office, address, fax, and phone number(s). The Depository shall have the sole discretion to decide whether in its opinion, the applicant has adequate infrastructure facilities at the time of granting admission;
- viii. the applicant has made adequate arrangements for conducting effective and safe Depository operations including security measures, software and hardware requirements, risk containment and insurance requirements, as specified by the Depository;
- ix. for the purpose of satisfying itself regarding the eligibility of the applicant to become a Participant, the Depository may carry out an inspection of the office and facilities of the applicants;
- x. the applicant shall be eligible to become a Participant with effect from the date on which it is registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India under The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996.

6.3. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS

6.3.1. No Participant shall conduct any business as a Participant unless it enters into an agreement with Depository as per Annexure A of these Bye Laws.

6.3.2. A Participant while conducting any business as a Participant with a Client shall act as an agent of the Depository (Principal), and shall be liable to the Client for all the acts and deeds performed by the Participant. Subject to the provisions of Sec. 16 of the Act , the Depository shall not be liable to any person other than a Participant or a Client who may have any claim or claims in relation to any matters concerning the Depository operations.

6.3.3. The Participant shall not give a debit or credit to the account of a Client without a due authorisation from Client.

6.3.4. Participant shall not commingle its own securities with the securities of its Client and shall maintain each Client's account separately.

6.3.5. The Depository shall obtain, on a daily basis, the Client details from all Participants. The details shall be obtained in respect of the changes in the accounts of the Clients from the processing undertaken at the end of the previous working day. The Client details shall include the Client name, address and also the security wise details of the balance of the Client.

6.3.6. The Participants shall submit the following returns to the Depository :-

- i. net worth certificate computed in a manner laid down in the Business Rules duly certified by a Chartered Accountant on the annual audited accounts of the Participant;
- ii. in case the Participant is a clearing member of the clearing corporation of any exchange, the details regarding any suspension/termination or defaults or any disputes in relation to its dealings with such clearing corporation within two working days of such an event;
- iii. number of complaints received from Clients, their nature, status and manner of redressal once every month;
- iv. number of transfers effected for off-market settlement of trades once every month.

6.3.7. It shall be the responsibility of each Participant to promptly check and reconcile with its own records the details of such advices, statements and reports and to promptly notify the Depository of any error or omission contained in such advices, statements and reports within the time specified by the Depository.

6.3.8. Any advice, statement or report provided by the Depository shall in the absence of manifest error, be conclusive as to its subject matter. Except as otherwise agreed by the Depository, the failure of a Participant to inform the Depository of any error or omission in any advice, statement or report within the time frame stipulated by the Depository shall constitute a waiver in favour of the Depository by such Participant of any right to require rectification.

6.3.9. The Depository may if it is satisfied that it is in the interest of the Clients entertain a late request by a Participant to rectify an error or omission as aforesaid.

6.3.10. Every Participant shall reconcile his records with those of the Depository on a daily basis.

6.3.11. The Executive Committee may at any time require a Participant to provide on demand, collateral or additional collateral in such form, extent and manner as is determined by the Executive Committee to be appropriate with reference to, inter alia, the level of unreconciled balance in case of transfer of its account to other Depository or excess credit balance of securities due to any fraud, error or omission on the part of its officers, agents and employees. The collateral shall be in addition to and independent of any security which the Depository may at any time hold for the obligations and liabilities of such Participant.

6.3.12. Without prejudice to the above, the Depository may, for the purposes of deciding whether or not to require a Participant to provide collateral, specify exposure limits on a Participant.

6.3.13. A Participant shall not create or permit the creation of any mortgage, charge or other encumbrance over all or any of the assets provided as collateral, security or such similar purpose to the Depository.

6.3.14. The Depository may apply all or any of the collateral (including all rights and entitlements thereto, if any) at any time without prior notice to a Participant in or towards satisfaction of the obligations and liabilities of such Participant to the Depository or such Participant's obligations and liabilities to a Client.

6.3.15. In respect of any sums received by the Depository from a Participant as collateral, the obligation of the Depository to such Participant shall be to the extent of the amount remaining after satisfaction of all obligations and liabilities (actual or contingent) of such Participant to the Depository and such Participant's obligations and liabilities to a Client.

6.3.16. Each Participant shall indemnify the Depository and its officers and employees and hold each of them harmless against all costs, fees, expenses, liabilities, taxes, actual losses and damages of any nature whatsoever suffered or incurred by any of them directly or indirectly as a result of or in connection with the following matters:-

- i. the participation in the Depository system by the Participant and /or its activities in the Depository including the provision of services by the Participant to the client and the provision of services by the Depository to the Participant and all matters relating thereto as contemplated in the Bye Laws;
- ii. the failure by the Participant to comply with the provision of the Bye Laws and the Participant agreement (including without limitation, the representations and warranties contained therein) or to comply with any directions or procedures of the Depository;
- iii. the acts by the Depository or its officers and employees done by placing reliance upon instructions or communications believed in good faith by any of them to have been given by or on behalf of the Participant (including, but not limited to, the giving of effect to such instructions or communications by any of them) or the failure of the Participant to give instructions to the Depository as contemplated in the Bye Laws;
- iv. the acceptance by the Depository of eligible securities deposited by the Participant and giving effect to transactions relating thereto by the Depository in accordance with the Bye Laws and thereunder the withdrawal of eligible securities by the Participant;
- v. the failure by the Participant to deliver eligible securities, or to perform such other duties or obligations contemplated in the Bye Laws.

Nothing contained above shall apply to the extent the Depository or its employees are guilty of negligence, wilful misconduct or fraud on their part and are responsible for the losses.

6.3.17. For the purpose of determining whether a Participant is liable for any acts or omissions under these Bye Laws, the acts or omissions, whether done intentionally or not, by its officers, employees, agents and representatives, shall be deemed to be acts or omissions of the Participant.

6.3.18. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bye Laws, the Depository shall not be bound to effect any transaction or take any other action upon the instructions of a Participant if it would violate any applicable law, decree, court order, regulation or order of any government or other competent authority or if the Depository determines that it will not be in the interests of the Depository, Participants or the general investors.

6.3.19. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bye Laws, the Depository shall have the right to initiate a transaction or to take any other action in order to give effect to the order or judgment of a court of law or the Central or State Government or any other competent statutory authority.

6.3.20. The Depository reserves the right to rectify any erroneous transaction made to the accounts of Participants and shall thereafter inform the concerned Participants of such rectification.

6.3.21. Without prejudice to any other right the Depository may have, if as a result of rectification by the Depository of any erroneous credit entries to the accounts of a Participant pursuant to these Bye Laws, a negative balance arises, the Depository may:

- i. require the Participant to replace the relevant eligible securities in this connection;
- ii. require the Participant to pay to it forthwith a cash sum of such amount as the Depository considers appropriate as collateral and the only obligation of the Depository in respect of such sum so paid by the Participant shall be to pay such Participant an amount equal to the balance remaining after satisfaction of all obligations & liabilities (actual or contingent) of such Participant to the Depository. The Depository may itself at any time purchase as replacement, eligible securities on behalf of the Participant, at such price as may be determined by the Executive Committee to be the best prevailing market price and terms, if any, or in other cases at its discretion on the terms available. The cost and other expenses in connection with purchase shall be borne by the Participant.

6.3.22. Each Participant shall be responsible to indemnify the Depository against all costs, fees, expenses, liabilities, actual losses and damages of any nature whatsoever incurred by the Depository as a result of or in connection with the purchase of replacement eligible securities by the Depository on behalf of the Participant.

6.3.23. No Participant shall assign its business as a Participant to any other person except with the prior approval of the Executive Committee which may notify from time to time the terms and conditions subject to which it may assign its business as a Participant to any other person.

6.3.24. ⁹ Where a Participant (hereinafter referred to as “Transferor Participant”) seeks to transfer the Participant business carried on by it to any transferee (hereinafter referred to as “Transferee Participant”), the assignment of the business or functions of the Transferor Participant to the Transferee Participant shall be regarded as complete and effectual only upon:-

- (a) the Transferee Participant meeting all applicable eligibility criteria prescribed for conduct of business as a Participant;
- (b) the Transferor Participant giving written notice to each of its Clients about the proposed transfer providing each client an option, which may be exercised within a period of not less than 60 days from receipt of such notice; and
- (c) the Transferor Participant and the Transferee Participant publishing a joint advertisement of the notice of the proposed transfer in such form as may be prescribed by the Executive Committee in one English national daily, one Hindi national daily with wide circulation and a regional language daily with wide circulation.

6.3.25 ¹⁰ Upon receipt of such notice, each Client shall have a right to elect in writing either (i) to continue as a Client of the Transferee Participant on the same terms and conditions as governed the receipt of services from the Transferor Participant; or (ii) to terminate its existing arrangement with the Transferor Participant and provide to the Transferor Participant details of the new Participant selected by the Client for shifting of all securities held through the Participant. Failure to issue such written election within the prescribed option period shall be deemed an election by the Client to continue as a Client of the Transferee participant. Nothing contained herein shall restrict the ability of the Client to terminate its relationship with the Transferee Participant.

6.3.26 ¹¹ Subject to compliance with the foregoing, the Transferee Participant and the Clients electing to continue with the relationship shall be bound by the existing agreements between the Transferor Participant and its Clients in the same manner and on the same terms and conditions as if the Transferee Participant had itself originally executed such agreements with the Clients. Such assignment of the agreements from the Transferor Participant to the Transferee Participant shall be subject to the equities to which the parties were subject as at the date of the transfer. After such transfer, the Transferee Participant shall notify the Clients in writing as regards the completion of the assignment of the business in favour of the Transferee Participant.

6.4. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS AND CLIENTS

6.4.1. No Participant shall conduct business as a Participant with its Clients unless it has entered into an agreement with its Clients.

6.4.2. ¹² Every Participant shall enter into an agreement referred to above with each of its Clients as per Annexure B of these Bye Laws:

Provided that in case of:

- i) foreign institutional investors registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India and who have entered into an agreement with the Participant either directly or through their power of attorney holders in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 16 of the SEBI (Foreign Institutional Investors) Regulations, 1995; and
- ii) such agreement gives the Participant an authority to act on behalf of the foreign institutional investors for availing the services of the Depository; and
- iii) such agreement has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Board of India;
- iv) International Multilateral Agency, who has entered into an agreement with the Participant under Regulation 17 of the SEBI (Custodians of Securities) Regulations 1996, and such agreement states that the Custodian will also act as a Participant and all provisions pertaining to Participant shall be applicable; then such Participant need not enter into an agreement as per Annexure B of these Bye Laws.

6.4.3. The Participant shall thereafter open separate accounts of each of its Clients for holding security balances on behalf of its Clients.

Notes:

¹² Amended w.e.f. October 6, 2000. Prior to this amendment Bye Law 6.4.2 was amended on March 6, 1997, which read as follows:

6.4.2. Every Participant shall enter into an agreement referred to above with each of its Clients as per Annexure B of these Bye Laws:

Provided that in case of:

- i. foreign institutional investors registered with the Securities and Exchange Board of India and who have entered into an agreement with the Participant either directly or through their power of attorney holders in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulation (1) of regulation 16 of the SEBI (Foreign Institutional Investors) Regulations, 1995; and
- ii. such agreement gives the Participant an authority to act on behalf of the foreign institutional investors for availing the services of the Depository ; and
- iii. such agreement has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Board of India; then such Participant need not enter into an agreement as per Annexure B of these Bye Laws.

Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 6.4.2. read as follows:

6.4.2. Every Participant shall enter into an agreement referred to above with each of its clients as per Annexure B of these Bye Laws.

6.4.4. ¹³ Every Participant shall provide a transaction statement including statement of accounts, if any, to the Clients in such form as specified under the Business Rules. Such a statement shall be furnished to the Clients at monthly intervals, unless the Participant and its Clients have agreed otherwise. However, if there is no transaction in the account, then the Participant shall provide such statement to the Client atleast once a quarter.

Provided that in case of a Participant who has not entered into an agreement as per Annexure B of this Bye Laws with its Client in terms of the proviso to Bye Law 6.4.2, then the Participant shall provide the transaction statement including statement of accounts, if any, to the Client as agreed between the Participant and the Client.

6.4.5. The Participant shall act on the instructions of the Client provided in the manner laid down under the Business Rules.

6.4.6. The Participant shall maintain a separate account for each Client and ensure that the securities of the Client are not mixed with its own securities.

6.5. TERMINATION

6.5.1. TERMINATION BY NOTICE BY THE DEPOSITORY

The Executive Committee may at any time and on such conditions as it thinks fit, by giving not less than thirty working days notice in writing, terminate the participation of a Participant under the following circumstances:-

- i) the Participant no longer meets the eligibility criteria to be a Participant;
- ii) in the event of the death, incapacity of a Participant being an individual or the dissolution of a Participant being a partnership;

6.4.4. Every Participant shall provide a transaction statement including statement of accounts, if any, to the Clients in such form as specified under the Business Rules. Such a statement shall be furnished to the Clients at fortnightly intervals unless the Participant and its Clients have agreed otherwise. However, if there is no transaction in the account, then the Participant shall provide such statement to the Client atleast once a quarter. Provided that in case of a Participant who has not entered into an agreement as per Annexure B of this Bye Laws with its Client in terms of the proviso to Bye Law 6.4.2, then the Participant shall provide the transaction statement including statement of accounts, if any, to the Client as agreed between the Participant and the Client.

Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 6.4.4 read as follows:

6.4.4 Every Participant shall submit periodical statement of accounts to the Clients in such form as specified under the Business Rules. Such a statement shall be furnished to the Clients at least once in fifteen days unless the Participant and its Clients have agreed otherwise.

 Bye Law 6.4.7. has been deleted w.e.f. September 5, 2002. Prior to deletion, Bye Law 6.4.7. read as follows:

6.4.7. In the event of multiple instructions received from the Client relating to transfer of securities which exceed the balance of the Client kept with the Participant, the sequence of execution of instructions by the Participant will be as follows :-

- i) in the event of the Client specifying the sequence of execution of instructions, in the same manner as specified by the Client to the extent it can be executed with the balance available with the Participant;
- ii) in the absence of specific instructions from the Client in the chronological order in which such instructions are received from the Client to the extent it can be executed with the balance available with the Participant.

- iii) in the event of a Participant being a body corporate when it is wound up or an official liquidator or provisional liquidator is appointed under The Companies Act, 1956;
- iv) in the event of a Participant ceasing to do business which relates to the Depository operations;
- v) the Depository has reasonable grounds to believe that the Participant is approaching financial difficulty or will be unable to meet its obligations to the Depository;
- vi) in the event of any distress, execution or other process being levied or enforced or served upon or against any property of a Participant;
- vii) in the event of bankruptcy, liquidation or winding up of a Participant or the initiation of any proceedings in relation thereto (including but not limited to the bankruptcy or an analogous act by a Participant) or if the Executive Committee considers in its absolute discretion that the occurrence of such events are imminent or likely;
- viii) in the event of the appointment of a receiver or administrator over the assets of a Participant or if a Participant suffers a composition with its creditors or if a scheme of arrangement is approved by the court (other than for the purposes of reconstruction or amalgamation) or if the Executive Committee considers in its absolute discretion that the occurrence of such events are imminent or likely;
- ix) in the event of failure to pay fees or any other charges as required under the Bye Laws or the Participant agreement;
- x) in the event of failure of a Participant to fulfill the obligations arising out of the indemnification of the Depository by the Participant;
- xi) the Depository has reasonable grounds to believe that the Participant has been responsible for negligence, fraudulent or dishonest conduct or has made a material misstatement or omitted to state a material fact in any statement to the Depository;
- xii) the Participant has violated any Business Rule, procedure or breach of agreement with the Depository;
- xiii) the Participant's registration granted by Securities and Exchange Board of India or by any other governmental agency has been suspended or cancelled;
- xiv) if the Participant is a member of a stock exchange, the Participant has been expelled, or its trading privileges have been suspended by the stock exchange;
- xv) the Depository has reasonable grounds to believe that termination of relationship with the Participant is necessary for the protection of investors or other Participants or to facilitate the orderly performance of the Depository services.

6.5.2. SUSPENSION WITHOUT NOTICE

Without prejudice to any other rights, the Depository may have and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Bye Laws, the Depository may suspend with immediate effect, the participation in the Depository of a Participant on the grounds enumerated in Bye Laws 6.5.1 (ix) to 6.5.1 (xv) above pending the proceedings under Bye Law 6.5.1.

6.5.3. TERMINATION OF PARTICIPANTSHIP BY A PARTICIPANT

The Depository may cease to provide any service or act for a Participant, on receiving a notice of not less than thirty days from the Participant, that the Participant no longer wishes to act as such. The Depository shall notify the Participant, other Participants, Clients of Participants and Securities and Exchange Board of India within seven days of the Participant ceasing to act as such.

6.5.4. CONSEQUENCES OF TERMINATION

- i) ¹⁴ On termination of participation, the Executive Committee shall, unless as otherwise provided in the Bye Laws, cause to be returned to or make available for collection by the Participant, all collateral held by the Depository from the Participant. Provided that the Depository shall have the right (without affecting any other rights it may have) to set off amounts due or which may become due to the Depository, other Participants and Clients from the Participant, if applicable. Provided further that the Depository shall refund such amount or amounts to the Participant after a period of six months from the date of cancellation of the certificate of registration issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India or after resolving pending investor grievances, if any against the Participant, to the satisfaction of the Depository, whichever is later.
- ii) The termination of participation in the Depository of a Participant will not affect any rights and liabilities of the Participant arising out of matters which have taken place prior thereto and for the purpose of settlement of any such rights or liabilities of the Participant, the Depository may continue to treat the Participant as a Participant.
- iii) Without prejudice to the provisions of (i) and (ii) above, the Depository shall be entitled to set off any earlier claims or rights of the Participant against any amount due to the Depository or any other person entitled for any claim through the Depository irrespective of the fact that such counter claim has arisen after the date of termination of the Participant.
- iv) In the event of the termination of participation by the Participant or the receipt of notification to terminate, the Executive Committee shall, as soon as practicable, notify the other Participants and initiate suitable steps for protection of the interests of Client account holders with such Participant.
- v) The Depository shall notify the Participant and other Participants and the Securities and Exchange Board of India within seven days of the termination of the Participant under Bye Laws 6.5.1, 6.5.2 and 6.5.3 above. The Participant shall inform all its

9. ACCOUNTS/TRANSACTIONS BY BOOK ENTRY

9.1. ACCOUNT OPENING

9.1.1. The Depository shall keep accounts separately in respect of each Participant. The Depository shall keep a record of each Client's account which shall be updated on a daily basis.

9.1.2. The Participant shall maintain separate accounts in respect of each Client and its own account. The Participant shall intimate the balances held in its own account and Client account to Depository on a daily basis.

9.1.3. Any prospective Client who wishes to avail the services of the Depository will have to open an account with the Depository through a Participant.

9.1.4. The Client will have to make an application for this purpose to the Participant in the format specified under the Business Rules.

9.1.5. ³⁴ The Client will be required to enter into an agreement with the Participant in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 6 of these Bye Laws.

9.1.6. Once the application has been accepted by the Participant, the applicant will be issued a Client account number.

9.2. DEMATERIALISATION

9.2.1. Credit of securities into the Depository shall be made either on account of dematerialisation of physical securities or on the fresh issue of securities in the dematerialised form.

9.2.2. A Client may convert his physical holdings of securities into dematerialised form by making an application to the Participant in a Dematerialisation Request Form (hereinafter referred to as DRF) in the form prescribed under the Business Rules along with the relevant security certificates.

9.2.3. The Participant shall forward the DRF so received, along with the security certificates, to the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent after electronically registering such request with the Depository. Such DRF shall be forwarded by the Participant not later than seven days of accepting the same from its Client.

9.2.4. The Depository will electronically intimate, on a daily basis, all dematerialisation requests to the respective Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent.

Note:

³⁴ Amended w.e.f. March 6, 1997. Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 9.1.5 read as follows:

9.1.5. The Client will be required to enter into an agreement with the Participant as per the draft laid out in Annexure B of these Bye Laws.

9.2.5. The Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent shall verify the validity of the security certificates as well as the fact that the DRF has been made by the person recorded as a member in its Register of Members.

9.2.6. After verification as aforesaid, the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent shall intimate the Depository authorising an electronic credit for that security in favour of the Client. On receipt of such intimation, the Depository shall cause necessary credit entries to be made in the account of the Client concerned.

9.2.7. No credit of any securities to the accounts of any Client shall be made unless the Depository has received an intimation from the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent or its agents as set out in Bye Law 9.2.6 above.

9.2.8. Where the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent rejects any dematerialisation request, it shall electronically intimate the Depository regarding such rejection within a period of fifteen days.

9.2.9. On the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent intimating to the Depository in the manner specified in Bye Law 9.2.8 above, the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent shall return the DRF along with the relevant security certificates unless the reasons for such rejections are:-

³⁷ Amended w.e.f. February 18, 2003. Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 9.3 read as follows:

9.3. ACCOUNT FREEZING

9.3.1. The Participant shall freeze the account of a Client maintained with him on written instructions received by the Participant in that regard from the Client concerned in the form specified under the Business Rules.

9.3.2. The Participant shall freeze the account of a Client on written instructions received by him in this regard from the Depository pursuant to the orders of the Central or State Government, Securities and Exchange Board of India or any order passed by the court, tribunal, or any statutory authority in this regard. Provided further that the frozen account shall be released on instructions from the Client in the case of Bye Law 9.3.1 above and the orders of the relevant authority in the case of Bye Law 9.3.2 above.

9.3.3. The Depository shall freeze the account of a Participant to the extent the securities are held in the Participants name:-

- i) on the orders of the Central or State Government or the Securities and Exchange Board of India or any court or tribunal or any statutory authority in this regard;
- ii) on the orders passed by the Disciplinary Action Committee on disciplinary grounds to that effect set out in Chapter 11 of the Bye Laws relating to Disciplinary Action;
- iii) if the Participant becomes insolvent, bankrupt or in case of a body corporate, being wound up.

Provided further that the frozen account may be released on instructions of the relevant authority in the case of Bye Law 9.3.3 above.

9.3.2. The Participant shall freeze the account and/or the ISIN and/or specific number of securities of a Client, on the basis of instructions received from the Client or pursuant to the orders received by the Participant or the Depository from the Central or State Government, the Securities and Exchange Board of India or any order passed by a court, tribunal, or any other statutory authority in this regard.

9.3.3. The Depository, at the request of a Participant or on the basis of the request received from the Client or pursuant to the orders received from the Central or State Government, the Securities and Exchange Board of India or any order passed by a court, tribunal or any other statutory authority, shall freeze the account and/or the ISIN and/or specific number of securities of the Client.

9.3.4. The Depository shall, on its own freeze the Participant's own account and/or the ISIN and/or specific number of securities to the extent of the securities held in the Participant's name, or advise the Participant to do so, under the following circumstances:-

- i) on the basis of the orders received from the Central or State Government or the Securities and Exchange Board of India or any court or tribunal or any other statutory authority in this regard; or
- ii) on the basis of the orders passed by the Disciplinary Action Committee as set out in Chapter 11 of the Bye Laws; or
- iii) the Participant has become insolvent, bankrupt or in case the Participant is a body corporate, it being wound up.

9.3.5. The account and/or the ISIN and/or specific number of securities, which were frozen in terms of the Bye Laws 9.3.1, 9.3.2, 9.3.3 and 9.3.4, may be unfrozen as per the procedure prescribed under the Business Rules in this regard.

9.4. REMATERIALISATION

9.4.1. A Client may withdraw its security balances with the Depository at any point of time by making an application to that effect to the Depository through its Participant.

9.4.2. A Participant holding its own securities in the Depository may withdraw its security balances with the Depository by making an application to that effect to the Depository.

9.4.3. The Client shall make the request for withdrawal of the balance in his account in the Rematerialisation Request Form (hereinafter referred to as RRF) as specified in the Business Rules.

9.4.4. On receipt of the RRF, the Participant shall check whether sufficient free relevant security balance is available in the account of the Client. If there is sufficient balance, the Participant shall accept the said RRF and block the balance of the Client to the extent of the rematerialisation quantity and electronically intimate the request to the Depository.

9.4.5. On receipt of the request referred to in Bye Law 9.4.4 above, the Depository shall block the balance of the Participant to the extent of rematerialisation quantity in Depository system.

9.4.6. The Depository will intimate electronically all such accepted rematerialisation applications to the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent on a daily basis.

9.4.7. The Participant shall forward the RRF to the Issuer or its Registrar and Transfer Agent within seven days of accepting such request from the Client. The Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent after validating the RRF will confirm electronically to the Depository that the RRF has been accepted. Thereafter the Issuer or its Registrar and Transfer Agent shall despatch the share certificates arising out of the rematerialisation request within a period of thirty days from receipt of such Rematerialisation Request Form.

9.4.8. On receipt of such acceptance from the Issuer or its Registrar and Transfer Agent, the Depository shall remove the balances from the respective Participant's account and the Participant shall remove the balance from the respective Client's account.

9.5. ACCOUNT CLOSURE

9.5.1. A Client wanting to close an account shall make an application, in the format specified to that effect in the Business Rules to the Participant.

9.5.2. The Client may close its account if no balances are standing to its credit in the account. In case any balances exist, then the account may be closed in the following manner:-

- i) by rematerialisation of all its existing balances in its account; and / or;
- ii) by transferring its security balances to its other account held either with the same Participant or with a different Participant.

9.5.3. The Participant shall ensure that all pending transactions as well as suspended accounts have been adjusted before closing such account. After ensuring that there are no balances in the Client account, the Participant shall execute the request for closure of the Client's account.

9.6. TRANSFER OF BALANCES

9.6.1. The Participant shall not execute any debit or credit in the account of the Client without authorisation from such Client.

9.6.2. The mode and the form of authorisation shall be specified in the Business Rules.

9.6.3. Where there is transfer of balance from the Client of one Participant to the Client of another Participant, both the delivering and the receiving Participant must enter instructions for delivery and receipt respectively. After the instructions are matched in the Depository system, such transfer shall be executed in the Participant's account in the Depository and the Participant shall in turn execute such transfer in the Client's account.

9.6.4. In the event of a Participant ceasing to be a Participant for the Depository, the Client of that Participant may, either request for rematerialisation of securities or request for the transfer of balances in its account with another Participant.

9.6.5. The Depository may on receipt of a court order transfer the balances standing in the Participant's account to another Participant account.

9.7. SECURITIES HELD IN SUSPENSE

9.9.10. On receipt of the intimation under Bye Law 9.9.9 above, the Depository shall make, in its records, the changes referred to in Bye Law 9.9.9 above.

9.9.11. No transfer of the security in respect of which a notice of pledge or entry of pledge is in force, shall be effected by a Participant without the concurrence of the pledgee.

9.9.12. Where the pledgee satisfies the Depository that owing to the default of the Client, the pledgee is entitled to be registered as the Beneficial Owner of the pledged securities or part thereof, the Depository may, after giving the Client a reasonable opportunity to make such representation as he may wish to make, direct the Participant to register the pledgee as the Client of such securities or part thereof and amend its own records accordingly.

9.9.13. On receipt of the direction under Bye Law 9.9.10 above, the Participant shall immediately carry out the necessary corrections in its records.

9.9.9. The Depository, after receiving prior confirmation from the Participant of the pledgee through an application made by the pledgee to the Participant in the form specified in Business Rules in this regard, shall cancel the entry of pledge made under Bye Law 9.9.4 and send an intimation of the same to the Participants of pledgor and pledgee.

9.9.10. The pledgee may invoke the pledge made under Bye Law 9.9.4, subject to the provisions of the pledge document, by making an application in the form specified in this regard in the Business Rules, to the Depository through its Participant.

9.9.11. The Participant shall make a note in its records, of the request of invocation of the entry of pledge and forward the request to the Depository.

9.9.12. The Depository, on receipt of a request under Bye Law 9.9.11, shall invoke the pledge and amend its record accordingly to register the pledgee as a beneficial owner of the securities and shall thereafter, send intimation of the same to the Participants of the pledgor and the pledgee.

9.9.13. On receipt of the intimation under Bye Law 9.9.12 above, the Participants of both the pledgor and the pledgee shall inform the pledgor and the pledgee respectively of the invocation of pledge.

- i) If the Client intends to create a hypothecation on the securities owned by him, he may do so in accordance with the provisions of Bye Laws 9.9.1 to 9.9.13.
- ii) The provisions of Bye Law 9.9.1 to 9.9.13 shall mutatis mutandis apply in such cases of hypothecation except in so far as Bye Law 9.9.4, the Depository shall invoke the entry of hypothecation made under Bye Law 9.9.4 after receiving confirmation from the Participant of the hypothecator through an application made by the hypothecator to the Participant in the form specified in this regard in the Business Rules.

9.9.15. No transfer of security in respect of which a notice or entry of pledge or hypothecation is in force shall be effected by a Participant without the prior concurrence of the pledgee or the hypothecatee as the case may be.

9.10. ⁴⁶ TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES

9.10.1. NSDL shall effect the transmission of security balances of any Client due to death, lunacy, bankruptcy, insolvency or by any other lawful means other than transfer.

9.10.2. In case where the deceased was one of the jointholders in the Client account, the surviving Client(s) shall be the person(s) recognised by NSDL as having any title to the security balances in that joint Client account.

Note:

⁴⁶ Inserted w.e.f October 16, 1998

9.10.2.1.⁴⁷ In cases where the deceased is the Karta of a Hindu Undivided Family (“HUF”) holding securities in such capacity, the surviving member(s) of the HUF may notify to NSDL the eldest surviving member of the HUF as the Karta of the HUF in accordance with law, and subject to production of such evidence and execution of such documents as may be prescribed in the Business Rules, the name of such newly designated Karta shall be entered in the records of NSDL as having title to the securities held in the beneficial owner account held by the deceased Karta.

Provided however that such facility shall be permitted by NSDL only if the gross value of the securities lying to the credit of such beneficial account does not exceed such limit as may be prescribed by NSDL in its Business Rules from time to time. In all other cases, no change of name of account holder shall be permitted unless supported by a succession certificate and such other requirements as may be prescribed in accordance with law.

9.10.3. In case where the deceased was a sole holder of the Client account, his legal heir(s) or the legal representative(s) shall be the only person(s) recognised by NSDL as having any title to the security balances in that sole Client account.

9.10.4. Such surviving joint holder(s) or legal heir(s) or legal representative(s) shall be required to produce such evidence and follow the procedures prescribed in the Business Rules for the purpose of transmission of security balances in their favour.

9.11.⁴⁸ TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES IN THE CASE OF NOMINATION

9.11.1. In respect of every account, the Beneficial Owner(s) (“Nominating Person(s)”) may nominate any person (“Nominee”) to whom his securities shall vest in the event of his death in the manner prescribed under the Business Rules from time to time.

9.11.2. The securities held in such account shall automatically be transferred in the name of the Nominee, upon the death of the Nominating Person, or as the case may be, all the Nominating Persons subject to the other Bye Laws mentioned hereunder.

9.11.3. A minor may be nominated to the interest in an account under these Bye Laws, provided the Nominating Person(s) follow(s) such requirements as may be prescribed under the Business Rules, including without limitation, provision of the name and address of the guardian of such minor to the Participant and the Depository.

Notes:

⁴⁷ Amended w.e.f. October 17, 2008. Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 9.10.2.1 was inserted w.e.f March 9, 2005, which read as follows:

9.10.2.1. In cases where the deceased is the Karta of a Hindu Undivided Family (“HUF”) holding securities in such capacity, the surviving member(s) of the HUF may notify to NSDL the eldest surviving male member of the HUF as the Karta of the HUF in accordance with law, and subject to production of such evidence and execution of such documents as may be prescribed in the Business Rules, the name of such newly designated Karta shall be entered in the records of NSDL as having title to the securities held in the beneficial owner account held by the deceased Karta.

Provided however that such facility shall be permitted by NSDL only if the gross value of the securities lying to the credit of such beneficial account does not exceed such limit as may be prescribed by NSDL in its Business Rules from time to time. In all other cases, no change of name of account holder shall be permitted unless supported by a succession certificate and such other requirements as may be prescribed in accordance with law.

⁴⁸ Inserted w.e.f October 25, 2000. The Original Rules 9.11, 9.12 and 9.13 have been renumbered as 9.12, 9.13 and 9.14 respectively.

9.11.4. Beneficial Owner(s) may substitute or cancel a nomination at any time. A valid nomination, substitution or cancellation of nomination shall be dated and duly registered with the Participant in accordance with the Business Rules prescribed therefor. The closure of the account by the Nominating Person(s) shall conclusively cancel the nomination.

9.11.5. A Nominee shall not be entitled to exercise any right conferred on Beneficial Owners under these Bye Laws, upon the death of the Nominating Person(s), unless the Nominee follows the procedure prescribed in the Business Rules for being registered as the Beneficial Owner of the securities of the Nominating Person(s) in the books of the Depository.

9.11.6. A nominee shall on the death of the Nominating Person(s) be entitled to elect himself to be registered as a Beneficial Owner by delivering a notice in writing to the Depository, along with the certified true copy of the death certificate issued by the competent authority as prescribed under the Business Rules. Subject to scrutiny of such election, the securities in the Account shall be transmitted to the account of the Nominee held with any depository.

9.11.7. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other disposition and/or nominations made by the Nominating Person(s) under any other law for the time being in force, for the purposes of dealing with the securities lying to the credit of deceased Nominating Person(s) in any manner, the Depository shall rely upon the last nomination validly made prior to the demise of the Nominating Person(s). The Depository shall not be liable for any action taken in reliance upon and on the basis of nomination validly made by the Nominating Person(s).

9.11.8. The Depository shall, on receipt of notice or on obtaining intimation about the death of the Nominating Person(s), issue a notice requiring the person recorded as a Nominee in its records to make an election to have the beneficial ownership of the relevant securities registered in the name of such Nominee. Further, the Depository shall take such action including suspending any transaction in the account of the Nominating person(s) for debits, till such time the requirements of the notice are complied with.

9.12. ⁴⁹ DEMATERIALISATION OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES

9.12.1. Credit of securities into the Depository shall be made on account of dematerialisation of physical securities or on account of transfer from Subsidiary General Ledger (SGL) accounts maintained by other eligible entities or on fresh issue of securities in dematerialised form.

9.12.2. A Client may convert his physical holding of securities into dematerialised form by making an application to the Participant in the Dematerialisation Request Form (DRF-GS) along with relevant security certificate and Form of transfer prescribed by RBI as contained in the Business Rules.

Note:

⁴⁹ Inserted w.e.f. October 16, 1998. Earlier rule 9.11 re-numbered as 9.12 w.e.f. October 25, 2000.

9.12.3. A Client may transfer his holdings in dematerialised form held in an SGL account with other eligible entity by making an application to the Participant in the Dematerialisation Request Form (DRF-GS) as prescribed under the Business Rules along with SGL transfer documents as prescribed under Rule 7 of P.D. Rules of RBI duly executed by the other eligible entity from whose SGL account the transfer is sought.

9.12.4. The Participant shall forward the DRF-GS and the documents so received, along with the security certificates, wherever applicable, to the Depository after electronically registering such a request in the DPM. Such DRF-GS shall be forwarded by the Participant to the Depository not later than seven days of accepting the same from its Client.

9.12.5. The Depository shall cause the necessary credit entries to be made in the account of the Client concerned, after obtaining prior approval from RBI for conversion of physical securities into SGL balances or for transfer of balances from SGL account maintained by other eligible entities, as the case may be.

9.12.6. Where any dematerialisation request is rejected by RBI, the Depository shall electronically intimate the Participant regarding such rejection within a period of seven days.

9.12.7. On receipt of rejection of the dematerialisation request, the Depository shall return the DRF along with the relevant security certificates and documents submitted by the Client unless the reasons for such rejections are:-

- a) the security certificates lodged by the Client are reported to be stolen;
- b) the security certificates are reported to be forged or fake;
- c) an order from a court or a competent statutory authority restraining the Depository from doing so;
- d) any other reason which in the opinion of RBI, that it would not be proper to return the security certificates.

9.13. ⁵⁰ WITHDRAWAL OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES FROM THE DEPOSITORY

9.13.1. A Client or a Participant holding its own securities in the Depository may withdraw the same and seek physical certificate or seek transfer to an SGL account of other eligible entity by making an application to that effect to the Depository in the Rematerialisation Request Form (hereinafter referred to as RRF-GS) as specified in the Business Rules.

Note:

⁵⁰ Inserted w.e.f October 16, 1998. Earlier Rule 9.12 re-numbered as Rule 9.13 w.e.f. October 25, 2000.

9.13.2. On receipt of the RRF-GS, the Participant shall check whether sufficient free relevant security balance is available in the account of the Client. If there is sufficient balance, the Participant shall accept the said RRF-GS and block the balance of the Client to the extent of the requested quantity and electronically intimate the request to the Depository.

9.13.3. On receipt of the request referred to in Bye Law 9.13.2 above, the Depository shall block the balance of the Participant to the extent of rematerialisation quantity in Depository system.

9.13.4. The Participant shall forward the RRF-GS to the Depository within seven days of accepting such request from the Client. The Depository shall forward the rematerialisation request to RBI in the form prescribed by RBI.

9.13.5. In case the request was for physical certificates, the Depository shall receive from RBI the physical certificates in its name and execute a form of transfer as prescribed by RBI in favour of the Client. The Depository shall confirm the acceptance of RRF-GS electronically and forward the physical certificates along with the form of transfer to the Client directly.

9.13.6. In case the request was for transfer to an SGL account with other eligible entity, the Depository shall confirm the acceptance of RRF electronically to the Participant, after obtaining approval from RBI.

9.13.7. On receipt of such confirmation from RBI as mentioned in clause 9.13.5 and 9.13.6 above, the Depository shall remove the balances from the respective Participant's account and the Participant shall remove the balances from the respective Client's account.

9.14. ⁵¹ SECURITIES LENDING

9.14.1 ⁵²Any entity desirous to lend or borrow securities may do so in the manner laid down under SEBI (Securities Lending Scheme), 1997 or any amendment thereof.

Notes:

⁵¹ Inserted w.e.f November 5, 1998. Earlier Rule 9.13 re-numbered as Rule 9.14 w.e.f. October 25, 2000.

⁵² Amended w.e.f August 30, 2008. Prior to this amendment, Bye law 9.14.1 read as follows:
9.14.1. Any entity having an account with a Participant in the Depository, desirous to lend or borrow securities, may do so in the manner laid down under SEBI (Stock Lending Scheme), 1997 or any amendment thereof and under the Business Rules.

10. RECONCILIATION, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

10.1. RECONCILIATION

10.1.1. The Participant shall intimate the Depository, all security balances held by the Participant with the Depository on a daily basis at the end of the day and the said balances will be reconciled with its balance held by the Depository.

10.1.2. ⁵³ The Depository shall intimate the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent, all security balances of the Issuer held in dematerialised form with the Depository at the end of the day and the said balances will be reconciled by the Issuer or its Registrar & Transfer Agent. Provided however that, this clause shall not apply where the Issuer is a State or the Central Government and reconciliation shall be carried out as provided in Clause 8.5.3 of the Bye Laws.

10.1.3. If there is failure of the reconciliation as specified in Bye Law 10.1.1 and Bye Law 10.1.2 above, the Depository may initiate necessary action including suspension of a Participant or suspension of transactions in a particular security till the process of reconciliation has been completed.

10.2. ACCOUNTING, INTERNAL CONTROL, REPORTS AND RETURNS

10.2.1. ⁵⁴ Each Participant shall furnish to the Depository every year, a copy of its audited financial statement within six months from the end of the Participant's financial year.

Provided that when the Depository is satisfied that circumstances warrant an extension of time to furnish such report, it may grant such extension to the Participant.

10.2.2. Every Participant shall keep accounts and records in respect of the operations of the Depository which shall be distinct and independent from the records and accounts maintained by it in respect of any other activities carried out by the Participant.

10.2.3. Proper accounts shall be maintained by the Depository as well as the Participants in respect of the operations of the Depository in accordance with the software provided by the Depository.

Notes:

⁵³ Amended w.e.f. October 16, 1998. Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 10.1.2 read as follows:

10.1.2. The Depository shall intimate the Issuers or its Registrar and Transfer Agent all security balances of the Issuer held in dematerialised form with the Depository at the end of the day and the said balances will be reconciled by the Issuer or its Registrar and Transfer Agent.

⁵⁴ Amended w.e.f. September 16, 2009. Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 10.2.1 was amended on September 6, 2002, which read as follows:

10.2.1. Each Participant shall furnish to the Depository every year, a copy of its audited financial statement within a period of one month after the balance sheet and profit and loss account have been placed before the company at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) or within six months from the end of the Participant's financial year, whichever is earlier.

Provided that when the Depository is satisfied that circumstances warrant an extension of time to furnish such report, it may grant such extension to the Participant.

Prior to this amendment, Bye Law 10.2.1. read as follows:

10.2.1. Each Participant shall furnish to the Depository every year, a copy of its audited financial statement and such report shall be furnished not later than six months after the end of the Participant's financial year. Provided that when the Depository is satisfied that circumstances warrant an extension of time to furnish such report, it may grant such extension to the Participant.

10.2.4. The books of accounts and records of the Participant relating to the operations of the Depository shall be open for inspection and audit to the officers of the Depository or their representatives. Such books of accounts and records shall be subjected to annual audit.

10.2.5. Every Participant shall allow persons authorised by the Depository to enter its premises during normal office hours and inspect its records relating to the operations of the Depository.

10.2.6. Every Participant shall submit periodic returns to the Depository in the format specified by the Executive Committee or the Bye Laws of the Depository, as the case may be.

10.2.7. Every Participant shall maintain the following records and documents, namely:

- i) records of all the transactions entered into with a Depository and with a Client;
- ii) details of securities dematerialised, rematerialised on behalf of Clients with whom it has entered into an agreement;

- i) Participants rights forfeited : The expelled Participant shall forfeit to the Depository, its rights as a Participant and all rights and privileges as a Participant of the Depository including any right to the use of or any claim upon or any interest in any property or funds of the Depository; but any liability of any such Participant to the Depository or to any Participant of the Depository shall continue and remain unaffected by its expulsion;
- ii) Office vacated : The expulsion shall create a vacancy in any office or position held by the expelled Participant in the Depository;
- iii) Rights of Clients unimpaired : The expulsion shall not affect the rights of the Clients who are Clients of the expelled Participant;
- iv) Rights of Creditors unimpaired : The expulsion shall not affect the rights of the Participants who are creditors of the expelled Participants;
- v) Fulfillment of obligations: The expelled Participant shall be bound to fulfill transactions outstanding at the time of his expulsion and it may with the permission of the Disciplinary Action Committee close such outstanding transactions with or through a Participant. The Depository shall have the power to fulfill all obligations towards its Clients of the expelled Participant outstanding at the time of expulsion of such Participant;
- vi) Participants not to deal: No Participant shall transact business for or with expelled Participant except with the previous permission of the Disciplinary Action Committee.

In case of expulsion of Participant, the Client shall have the option of either getting the securities held with the Participant transferred to another Participant or getting the securities rematerialised.

11.11. EXPULSION RULES TO APPLY

When a Participant ceases to carry on business otherwise than on death, the Participant shall be deemed to be expelled and in that event all provisions relating to expulsion contained in these Bye Laws shall apply to such concerned Participants in all respects.

11.12. NOTICE OF SUSPENSION OF BUSINESS

Notice shall be given to all other Participants by a notice on the system of the Depository of the expulsion or suspension of business in relation to the operations of the Depository by a Participant or of any other charges imposed on it, on its partners, authorised representatives or other employees. The Disciplinary Action Committee may, in its absolute discretion and in such manner as it thinks fit, notify or cause to be notified to the Participants of the Depository or to the Clients and to public, that any person who is named in such notification has been expelled, suspended or has suspended its business or ceased to be a Participant. No action or other proceedings shall, in any circumstances, be maintainable by such suspended/ expelled Participant against the Depository or the Disciplinary Action Committee, or any member of the Disciplinary Action Committee or any employee of the Depository for the publication or circulation of such notification.

11.13. PROCEDURE FOR CANCELLATION OF AGREEMENT BETWEEN PARTICIPANT AND DEPOSITORY

11.13.1. The agreement entered into between the Participant and the Depository shall be cancelled under the following cases:-

- i) on the expulsion of the Participant by the Disciplinary Action Committee; or,
- ii) on the termination of the Participant by the Depository in accordance with the provisions of Bye Law 6.5.1; or,
- iii) on the termination of the Participantship by the Participant in accordance with the provisions of Bye Law 6.5.3.

11.13.2. The cancellation of the agreement shall have effect only when such cancellation has been approved by the Depository. The Depository shall give approval for such cancellation only if:-

- i) there exists no suspense balance in the accounts of the Participants with the Depository;
- ii) the accounts of all the Clients of the Participants have been closed and there exist no balances;
- iii) the Participant has paid or settled all his outstanding dues to the Depository.

11.13.3. Such cancellation of the agreement referred to in Bye Law 11.13.1 above shall not affect any claims arising in respect of transactions effected by the Participant while it was a Participant of the Depository.

12. APPEALS

12.1. RIGHT OF APPEAL

12.1.1. Any Participant aggrieved by the order passed by the Disciplinary Action Committee shall have the right of appeal to the Executive Committee against the said order of the Disciplinary Action Committee.

12.2. PROCEDURE FOR APPEAL

12.2.1. An Appeal may be filed by a Participant within thirty days of receipt of the order of the Disciplinary Action Committee. The Appeal may be filed by filing with the Executive Committee a note and memorandum of appeal stating the reasons and grounds of the appeal against the decision/order of the Disciplinary Action Committee and must also state the relief sought, if any.

12.2.2. The Executive Committee shall have the power to stay the operation of the final order passed by Disciplinary Action Committee for such period and on such terms and conditions as Executive Committee or sub committee of Executive Committee deems fit.

12.3. CONSIDERATION OF APPEAL

12.3.1. The Appeal will be heard by the Executive Committee or sub-committee of Executive Committee to whom the power of hearing is delegated. At such hearing, the appellant shall be entitled to be represented by advocates, counsel, attorneys and other representatives.

12.3.2. The time limit for the disposal of an appeal preferred to the Executive Committee shall be two months from the date of making such appeal or such other extended time as may be decided by the Executive Committee.

12.4. RECORD

12.4.1. A copy of the record of the Disciplinary Action Committee and the Executive Committee, relating to the appeals, shall be furnished to the Securities and Exchange Board of India upon a request being received from the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

13. CONCILIATION

13.1. In all claims, differences and disputes, irrespective of whether the Depository is a party or not, arising out of or in relation to dealings on the Depository including any agreements, contracts and transactions made subject to the Bye Laws or Business Rules of the Depository or with reference to anything incidental thereto or in pursuance thereof or relating to their validity, construction, interpretation, fulfillment or the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties thereof and including any question of whether such dealings, transactions, agreements and contracts have been entered into or not, the parties shall be free to adopt conciliation proceedings subject to the provisions of Part III of The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996.

14. ARBITRATION

14.1. CLAIMS, DIFFERENCE AND DISPUTES BETWEEN PARTICIPANTS INTER SE AND BETWEEN PARTICIPANTS AND CLIENTS

14.1.1. All claims, differences and disputes between Participants inter se and between Participants and Clients arising out of or in relation to dealings on the Depository including any agreements, contracts and transactions made subject to the Bye Laws and the Business Rules of the Depository or with reference to anything incidental thereto or in pursuance thereof or relating to their validity, construction, interpretation, fulfillment or the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties thereto and including any question of whether such dealings, transactions, agreements and contracts have been entered into or not, shall be referred to arbitration in accordance to and subject to the provisions of The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996,⁵⁷ Chapter 19 of the Business Rules and this Chapter.

14.1.2. In all dealings, transactions, agreements and contracts which are made subject to the Bye Laws and the Business Rules of the Depository, the provisions relating to arbitration as provided in The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, Chapter 19 of the Business Rules and this Chapter shall form a part of such dealings, transactions, agreements and contracts and the parties shall be deemed to have entered into an arbitration agreement by which all claims, differences and disputes of the nature referred to in Bye Law 14.1.1 above shall be submitted to and decided by arbitration as per the provisions of The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, Chapter 19 of the Business Rules and this Chapter.

14.1.3. In all claims, differences and disputes between Participants inter se and between Participants and Clients, a sole arbitrator shall be appointed by the Executive Committee of the Depository from a panel of arbitrators constituted from time to time by the Executive Committee. The panel of arbitrators shall consist of such persons as the Executive Committee may in its discretion determine from time to time. The procedure to be followed in such an arbitration shall be as provided for in The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and Chapter 19 of the Business Rules.

14.1.4. In the case of a claim, difference or dispute between the Participant and the Client, neither party shall appear in arbitration proceedings through an advocate, counsel or attorney or authorised representative unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties.

Note:

⁵⁷ Amended w.e.f. December 12, 2000. Prior to this amendment, reference to Chapter 19 of the Business Rules was not there.

14.2. CLAIMS, DIFFERENCES, DISPUTES WHERE THE DEPOSITORY IS A PARTY

14.2.1. All claims, differences and disputes between the Depository and the Participant or the Depository and the Issuer or the Depository and the Clearing Corporation, arising out of or in relation to dealings on the Depository including any agreements, contracts and transactions made subject to the Bye Laws and Business Rules of the Depository or with reference to anything incidental thereto or in pursuance thereof or relating to their validity, construction, interpretation, fulfillment or the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties thereto and including any question of whether such dealings, transactions, agreements and contracts have been entered into or not, shall be referred to arbitration in accordance to and subject to the provisions of The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, Chapter 19 of the Business Rules and this Chapter.

14.2.2. In all claims, differences and disputes involving the Depository as one of the parties, the Depository and the other party shall each appoint one arbitrator and the two arbitrators so appointed by them shall in turn appoint a third arbitrator who shall act as the presiding arbitrator. In case the two arbitrators fail to agree upon the appointment of the third arbitrator, the third arbitrator shall be appointed in accordance to the provisions of The Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 and Chapter 19 of the Business Rules.

14.2.3 ⁵⁸Nothing contained in this Chapter shall result in any administrative or disciplinary decision by the Depository by which any Participant is aggrieved as being regarded as a dispute subject to arbitration under this Chapter."

14.3. GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALL ARBITRATIONS AS PROVIDED FOR IN THIS CHAPTER

14.3.1. For all claims, disputes and differences which are required by the provisions of this Chapter to be submitted for arbitration, irrespective of the parties involved in such claims, disputes and differences, the place of arbitration shall be at Mumbai only unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by the parties.

14.3.2. The arbitrator may adjourn the hearings from time to time upon an application made by either or both the parties or at his own instance; provided however that when the adjournment is granted at the request of one party to the reference, the arbitrator, may if deemed fit, require such party to pay the fees and costs in respect of the adjourned hearing borne by the other party and in the event of such party failing to do so may deal with the matter in such manner as he may deem fit.

14.3.3. The language to be used in arbitral proceedings shall be English unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties.

14.3.4. The arbitral award shall be written in English language.

Note:

⁵⁸ Inserted w.e.f. November 9, 2010

14.3.5 ⁵⁹ All claims, differences or disputes referred to in this Chapter shall be submitted to arbitration within the limitation period as specified in the Limitation Act, 1963.

Provided that the limitation period shall also be applicable in following cases:

- i. where the limitation period (in terms of Limitation Act 1963) have not yet elapsed and the parties have not filed for arbitration with the depository, or,

- ii. where the arbitration application was filed but was rejected solely on the ground of delay in filing within the earlier limitation period; and the limitation period (in terms of Limitation Act 1963) have not yet elapsed.

Note:

⁵⁹ Amended w.e.f. November 30, 2011, Prior to this amendment Bye Law 14.3.5 was inserted w.e.f. April 30, 2010 read as follows :

All claims, differences or disputes referred to in this Chapter shall be submitted to arbitration within six months from the end of the quarter of the date from which the claim, difference or dispute arose or shall be deemed to have arisen. The time taken in conciliation proceedings, if any, initiated and conducted as per the provisions of the Act and the time taken to administratively resolve the claims, differences or disputes shall be excluded for the purpose of determining the period of six months.

Provided that in cases where after examining sufficient documentary proof submitted by the party for not filing the arbitration case within the limitation period, the Depository considers that the reasons for delay were indeed beyond the control of the party, the limitation period can be extended in those cases for a further period of three months by the Depository after recording the reasons for the same in writing.

NATIONAL SECURITIES DEPOSITORY LIMITED

This Agreement made and entered into this _____ day of _____ between _____ situated at _____ (hereinafter called "Participant") and The National Securities Depository Limited having its Registered Office at Tradeworld, 4th floor, 'A' Wing, Kamala Mills Compound, Senapati
Bapat Marg, Lower Parel, Mumbai - 400013 (hereinafter called "NSDL")

Witnesseth

WHEREAS the Participant has furnished, to NSDL an application for being admitted as a Depository Participant.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the NSDL having agreed to admit the Depository Participant, into its Depository system, both the parties to this Agreement hereby covenant and agree as follows:

- 1) The Participant shall abide by the provisions of The Depositories Act, 1996,
Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996, Bye Laws & Business Rules and procedures of NSDL wherever applicable and comply with any orders, directions or notices which may be issued or prescribed by the Executive Committee of NSDL from time to time in respect of its services and facilities of the Depository system whether of a temporary or permanent nature.
- 2) The Participant shall continue to be bound by the Bye Laws and Business Rules of NSDL, notwithstanding that it may have ceased to be a Participant, as to all matters and transactions occurring while it was a Participant.
- 3) The Bye Laws and Business Rules of NSDL shall be a part of the terms and conditions of every agreement, contract or transaction which the Participant may make or have with NSDL.
- 4) The Participant shall be bound by any amendment to the Bye Laws or Business Rules of NSDL with respect to any transaction occurring subsequent to the time of such amendment. Such amendment shall take effect as if it were originally a part of the Bye Laws and Business Rules of NSDL, provided however, that no such amendment shall affect the Participant's rights to cease to be a Participant.
- 5) The agreement and all contracts and transactions effected by the Participant with any other party, or to which the Participant is a party under the Bye Laws and the Business Rules of NSDL or through the facilities of NSDL shall be governed by and be construed in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws as well as the rules and regulations of the regulatory bodies having jurisdiction over the Participant applicable from time to time.

- 6) The Participant shall pay such fees and charges that may be payable to NSDL in accordance with the schedule specified under the Business Rules and any deposits or other amounts payable in accordance with the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
 - a) In case of any default on the part of the Participant to pay any of the amounts specified above within a period of 30 days from the date of demand, without prejudice to the rights of the Depository to take disciplinary action under Chapter 11 of the Bye Laws, the Participant will be liable to pay interest at such rate at the rate of not more than 24 % or such other rate as may be specified by the Executive Committee from time to time on the amount from the due date of payment of such amount.
 - b) However, the Executive Committee may permit the payment of such amount even without interest after such due date, provided it is satisfied that there exist sufficient grounds for such delayed payment.
- 7) The Participant shall not commingle his own holdings held in NSDL with those held on behalf of the Clients. The Participant shall effect any transfer of holdings only if the same is supported by a valid instruction and an adequate audit trail of the same is maintained unless otherwise provided in the Bye Laws. The Participant shall be responsible for every action taken on the basis of any order, instruction, direction or mandate given by the account holder.
- 8) The Participant shall comply with the time schedule specified from time to time by NSDL for data transfer.
- 9) The Participant shall comply with such procedures, in case of deposit and withdrawal of securities to and from any of its accounts maintained with NSDL as laid down under the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 10) The Participant shall comply with the requests received from the clients, for dematerialisation and rematerialisation within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the Business Rules, and shall be required to keep records of the same as laid down by The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996.
- 11) The Participant shall keep computerised records in such manner as may be prescribed in The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996, Bye Laws and Business Rules in respect of its use of any of the services and facilities of NSDL and allow any person duly authorised by NSDL to enter its premises, within the regular business hours on any business day where such records are kept and inspect and take copies of such records. The Participant shall provide on demand any information to NSDL relating to the contracts and transactions that the Participant may have under the depository system.
- 12) The Participant shall reconcile its own records with those of NSDL on a daily basis and in such manner as may be specified in the Business Rules.

- 13) The Participant shall install at its computer center, client server, hardware configuration with system database, communication and application software as prescribed by NSDL.
 - a) Unless otherwise supplied directly by NSDL, all hardware and software in accordance with prescribed configuration shall be procured by the Participant from NSDL empanelled brands only.
 - b) The above hardware and software set-up shall be dedicated for NSDL specific application module and even if there is spare processing/data storage capacity, the same shall not be used for any other application including the Participant's backoffice system.
 - c) The above hardware may be connected by the Participant to their internal LAN for data transfer purpose.
 - d) The above hardware shall not be connected by the Participant to their interoffice WAN without the prior written permission of NSDL. NSDL reserves the right to deny such permission if in its opinion granting such permission involves violation of conditions relating to the operations of NSDL's WAN as stipulated by Department of Telecommunications or any other reasons as may be deemed fit by NSDL.
 - e) The Participant shall carry out modification, upgradation, replacement and deletion for the above mentioned configuration from time to time as may be prescribed by NSDL.
- 14) The Participant shall maintain such insurance mechanism and coverage, as NSDL may require of its Participants from time to time.
- 15) The Participant shall contribute to the Investor Protection Fund, the Participant Fund and any other fund established to protect the interests of the Clients in the manner laid out in the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 16) The Participant shall comply with such accounting, audit, financial requirements including requirements for submission of periodic returns on its activities in relation to NSDL, in such form and manner and within such time period as may be specified in the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 17) The Participant shall have such system and audit control measures including setting up of separate internal controls, audit department for regularly reviewing its internal operations, as laid down under the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 18) The Participant shall pay NSDL such amount as may be specified by the Executive Committee in this regard to compensate for any loss incurred by the Client due to any act of omission, commission, negligence, misfeasance, fraud, willful misconduct, errors or default on its part as a Participant or any of its employees in relation to the operations of the Depository.

- 19) The Participant shall indemnify NSDL, in respect of securities credited in its own account towards:
 - a) losses, liabilities and expenses arising from claims of third parties and from taxes and other governmental charges; and,
 - b) any other related expenses in respect of such securities as determined by the Executive Committee.
- 20) The Participant shall provide such information relating to account holders as may be required by NSDL from time to time.
- 21) NSDL is authorised to provide at any time to the Issuer, the details of any credit to the Participant 's own accounts as well as the account of Client in NSDL, including its name, and the number of securities and is also authorised to provide similar information to any appropriate governmental authority in this regard.
- 22) The Participant shall notify NSDL within seven days, of any change in the details set out in the application form submitted to NSDL at the time of admission or furnished to NSDL from time to time.
- 23) The Participant shall notify NSDL forthwith :-
 - a) in case the Participant is an individual, in the event of its incapacity to act as such Participant;
 - b) in case the Participant is a partnership firm, in the event of its dissolution;
 - c) in case the Participant is a body corporate when it is being wound up;
 - d) upon its becoming aware of the presentation of any petition for its bankruptcy, liquidation or attachment of its property;
 - e) upon its becoming aware of any bankruptcy order against it or in the event of any distress, execution or other process being levied or served upon or against its property;
 - f) in the case of any change in its financial conditions which may lead to its bankruptcy or if it suffers a composition with its creditors;
 - g) on the convening of any meeting to consider a resolution for the appointment or purported appointment of a receiver or administrator in respect of any of its property, or any other change in circumstances material to its participation in the depository system.
- 24) The Participant shall resolve any investor grievance which has been received against the Participant or NSDL and submit a report of the grievances resolved to NSDL and Securities and Exchange Board of India in accordance with the period stipulated in The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories & Participants) Regulations, 1996.
- 25) The Participant and NSDL shall abide by the arbitration and conciliation procedure prescribed under the Bye Laws of NSDL and that such procedure shall be applicable to any disputes between the Participant and NSDL.

26) The Participant and NSDL further agree that all claims, differences and disputes, arising out of or in relation to dealings on the Depository including any agreements, contracts and transactions made subject to the Bye Laws or Business Rules of the Depository or with reference to anything incidental thereto or in pursuance thereof or relating to their validity, construction, interpretation, fulfillment or the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties thereto and including any question of whether such dealings, transactions, agreements and contracts have been entered into or not, shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts at Mumbai only.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE DEPOSITORY PARTICIPANT AND THE PERSON SEEKING TO OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH THE DEPOSITORY PARTICIPANT

This agreement made and entered into this _____ day of _____
between _____ situated at _____ (hereinafter called “the Client”) and _____ situated at _____ (hereinafter called “the Depository Participant”).

Witnesseth

WHEREAS the Client has furnished to the Depository Participant the duly filled in application form requesting therein to open an account with the Depository Participant.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the Depository Participant having agreed to open an account for the Client, both the parties to the agreement hereby covenant and agree as follows :

- 1) The Client shall pay such charges to the Depository Participant for the purpose of opening and maintaining his account, for carrying out the instructions of the Client and for rendering such other services as may be agreed to from time to time between the Depository Participant and the Client as set out in Schedule A. The Depository Participant shall reserve the right to revise the charges by giving not less than thirty days notice in writing to the Client.
- 2) The Client shall have the right to get the securities which have been admitted on the Depository dematerialised in the form and manner laid down under the Bye Laws and Business Rules. The Depository Participant further undertakes that it shall not create or permit to subsist any mortgage, charge or other encumbrance over all or any of such securities submitted for dematerialisation except on the instructions of the Client.
- 3) The Depository Participant hereby undertakes that it shall maintain a separate account of its own securities held in dematerialised form with the Depository and shall not commingle the same with the securities held in dematerialised form on behalf of the Client.
- 4) The Depository Participant undertakes that a transfer to and from the accounts of the Client shall be made only on the basis of an order, instruction, direction or mandate duly authorised by the Client and that the Depository Participant shall maintain adequate audit trail of such authorization.

- 5) The Depository Participant agrees that the Client may give standing instructions with regard to the crediting of securities in his account and the Depository Participant shall act according to such instructions.
- 6) The Depository Participant undertakes to provide a transaction statement including statement of accounts, if any, to the Client at monthly intervals unless the Depository Participant and the Client have agreed for provision of such statements at shorter intervals. However, if there is no transaction in the account, then the Depository Participant shall provide such statement to the Client atleast once a quarter.
- 7) The Depository Participant shall have the right to terminate this agreement, for any reasons whatsoever, provided the Depository Participant has given a notice in writing of not less than thirty days to the Client as well as to the Depository. Similarly, the Client shall have the right to terminate this agreement and close his account held with the Depository Participant, provided no charges are payable by him to the Depository Participant. In such an event, the Client shall specify whether the balances in its account should be transferred to another account of the Client held with another Depository Participant or to rematerialise the security balances held. Based on the instructions of the Client, the Depository Participant shall initiate the procedure for transferring such security balances or rematerialise such security balances within a period of thirty days, as per the procedure laid down in the Bye Laws and Business Rules. Provided further, termination of this agreement shall not affect the rights, liabilities and obligations of either party and shall continue to bind the parties to their satisfactory completion.
- 8) On the failure of the Client to pay the charges as laid out in Clause (1) of this agreement within a period of thirty days from the date of demand Depository Participant shall terminate this agreement and close the account of the Client by requiring it to specify whether the balances in its account be transferred to the account of the Client held with another Depository Participant or be rematerialised in the manner specified in the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 9) The Client further agrees that in the event of the Client committing a default in the payment of any of the amounts provided in Clause (1) within a period of thirty days from the date of demand, without prejudice to the right of the Depository Participant to close the account of the Client, the Depository Participant may charge interest @ not more than 24% p.a. or such other rate as may be specified by the Executive Committee from time to time for the period of such default. In case the Client has failed to make the payment of any of the amounts as provided in Clause (1) of this agreement, the Depository Participant shall have the right to discontinue the Depository services till such time he makes the payment along with interest, if any, after giving two days notice to the Client.

- 10) The Depository Participant shall have a right to provide such information related to the Client's account as may be requested by the National Securities Depository Limited from time to time.
- 11) The Client shall have the right to create a pledge of the securities held in the dematerialised form with the Depository Participant only in accordance with the procedure and subject to the restrictions laid down under the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 12) The Depository shall not be liable to the Client in any manner towards losses, liabilities and expenses arising from the claims of third parties and from taxes, and other governmental charges in respect of securities credited to the Clients account.
- 13) The Client may exercise the right to freeze his account maintained with the Depository Participant so as to lock the securities held with the Depository Participant in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 14) The Client may exercise the right to defreeze his account maintained with the Depository Participant in accordance with the procedure and subject to the restrictions laid down under the Bye Laws and Business Rules.
- 15) The Client shall notify the Depository Participant, within seven days, of any change in the details set out in the application form submitted to the Depository Participant at the time of opening the account or furnished to the Depository Participant from time to time.
- 16) The Depository Participant undertakes to resolve all legitimate grievances of the Client against the Depository Participant within a period of thirty days.
- 17) The Depository Participant and the Client shall abide by the arbitration and conciliation procedure prescribed under the Bye Laws of National Securities Depository Limited and that such procedure shall be applicable to any disputes between the Depository Participant and the Client.
- 18) The Depository Participant and the Client further agree that all claims, differences and disputes, arising out of or in relation to dealings on the Depository including any transactions made subject to the Bye Laws or Business Rules of the Depository or with reference to anything incidental thereto or in pursuance thereof or relating to their validity, construction, interpretation, fulfillment or the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties thereto and including any question of whether such dealings, transactions have been entered into or not, shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts at Mumbai only.
