(2) Every depository shall intimate the Board the place where the records and documents are maintained.

(3) Subject to the provisions of any other law the depository shall preserve records and documents for a minimum period of eight years.

Co-operation with other entities

55. Every depository shall extend all such co-operation to the beneficial owners, issuers, issuers' agents, custodians of securities, other depositories and clearing organizations as is necessary for the effective, prompt and accurate clearance and settlement of securities transactions and conduct of business.

Consolidated account statement

56. In order to enable generation of a consolidated account statement for the use of a beneficial owner in respect of all demat assets held by him, the depository shall enter into necessary agreements for sharing of such information.

Prohibition of assignment

57. No depository shall assign or delegate to any other person its functions as a depository, without the prior approval of the Board.

Agreement by participant

58. Every participant shall enter into an agreement with a beneficial owner before acting as a participant on his behalf, in a manner specified by the depository in its bye-laws.

Separate accounts

59. (1) Separate accounts shall be opened by every participant in the name of each of the beneficial owners and the securities of each beneficial owner shall be segregated, and shall not be mixed up with the securities of other beneficial owners or with the participant's own securities.

(2) A participant shall register the transfer of securities to or from a beneficial owner's account only on receipt of instructions from the beneficial owner and thereafter confirm the same to the beneficial owner in a manner as specified by the depository in its bye-laws.

(3) Every entry in the beneficial owner's account shall be supported by electronic instructions or any other mode of instruction received from the beneficial owner in accordance with the agreement with the beneficial owner.

Statement of accounts

60. Every participant shall provide statements of account to the beneficial owner in such form and in such manner and at such time as provided in the agreement with the beneficial owner.

Transfer or withdrawal by beneficial owner

61. Every participant shall allow a beneficial owner to withdraw or transfer from his account in such manner as specified in the agreement with the beneficial owner.

Connectivity

62. Every participant shall maintain continuous electronic means of communication with each depository in which it is a participant.

Monitoring, reviewing and evaluating internal systems and controls

63. Every participant shall have adequate mechanism for the purpose of reviewing, monitoring and evaluating the participant's internal accounting controls and systems.

Reconciliation

64. Every participant shall reconcile his records with every depository in which it is a participant on a daily basis.

Returns

65. Every participant shall submit periodic returns to the Board and to every depository in which it is a participant in the format specified by the Board or the bye-laws of the depository, as the case may be.

Record of services

66. (1) Every participant shall maintain the following records and documents, namely :—
- (a) records of all the transactions entered into with a depository and with a beneficial owner;
 - (b) details of securities dematerialised, rematerialised on behalf of beneficial owners with whom it has entered into an agreement;
 - (c) records of instructions received from beneficial owners and statements of account provided to beneficial owners; and
 - (d) records of approval, notice, entry and cancellation of pledge or hypothecation, as the case may be.
- (2) Every participant shall make available for the inspection of the depository in which it is a participant all records referred to in sub-regulation (1).
- (3) Every participant shall allow persons authorised by the depository in which it is a participant to enter its premises during normal office hours and inspect its records.
- (4) Every participant shall intimate the Board the place where the records and documents are maintained.
- (5) Subject to the provisions of any other law, the participant shall preserve records and documents for a minimum period of eight years.

Manner of keeping records

67. Where records are kept electronically by the participant it shall ensure that the integrity of the data processing systems is maintained at all times and take all precautions necessary to ensure that the records are not lost, destroyed or tampered with and in the event of loss or destruction, ensure that sufficient back up of records is available at all times at a different place.

Records to be maintained depository-wise

68. If a participant enters into an agreement with more than one depository, it shall maintain the records specified in regulation 66 separately in respect of each depository.

Prohibition of assignment

69. No participant shall assign or delegate its functions as participant to any other person, without the prior approval of the depository.

Agreement by issuer

70. Every issuer whose securities have been declared as eligible to be held in dematerialised form in a depository shall enter into an agreement with the depository in accordance with the provisions of regulation 43:

Provided that no agreement shall be required to be entered into in case,—

- (i) the depository is the issuer of securities; or
- (ii) the State or the Central Government is the issuer of Government securities.

Manner of handling share registry work

71. All matters relating to transfer of securities, maintenance of records of holders of securities, handling of physical securities and establishing connectivity with the depositories shall be handled and maintained at a single point i.e. either in-house by the issuer or by a Share Transfer Agent registered with the Board.

Redressal of investor grievances

72. Every issuer or its agent or any person who is registered as an intermediary under this regulation, shall redress the grievances of beneficial owners within thirty days of the date of receipt of the complaint and keep the depository informed about the number and nature of grievances redressed by it and the number of grievances pending before it.

Investor Protection Fund

73. (1) Every depository shall establish and maintain an Investor Protection Fund for the protection of interest of beneficial owners:

Provided that this Fund shall not be used by the depository for the purpose of indemnifying the beneficial owner under section 16 of the Depositories Act, 1996.

(2) Every depository shall credit five percent or such percentage as may be specified by the Board, of its profits from depository operations every year to the Investor Protection Fund.

(3) The contribution to and utilization of the Investor Protection Fund shall be in accordance with the norms specified by the Board.

Manner of surrender of certificate of security

74. (1) Any beneficial owner, who has entered into an agreement with a participant, shall inform the participant of the details of the certificate of security which is to be dematerialised, and shall surrender such certificate to the participant :

Provided that where a beneficial owner has appointed a custodian of securities, then he may surrender the certificates of security to the participant through his custodian of securities.

(2) The participant shall, on receipt of information under sub-regulation (1), forward such details of the certificate of security to the depository and shall confirm to the depository that an agreement has been entered into between the participant and the beneficial owner.

(3) The participant shall maintain records indicating the names of beneficial owners of the securities surrendered, the number of securities and other details of the certificate of security received.

(4) The participant shall, within seven days of the receipt of certificate of security referred to in sub-regulation (1) furnish to the issuer details specified in sub-regulation (2) along with the certificate of security.

(5) Within fifteen days of receipt of the certificate of security from the participant the issuer shall confirm to the depository that securities comprised in the said certificate have been listed on the stock exchange or exchanges where the earlier issued securities are listed and shall also after due verification immediately mutilate and cancel the certificate of security and substitute in its record the name of the depository as the registered owner and shall send a certificate to this effect to the depository and to every stock exchange where the security is listed:

Provided that in case of unlisted companies the condition of listing on all the stock exchanges where earlier issued shares are listed, shall not be applicable.

(6) Immediately upon receipt of information from the issuer under sub-regulation (5), the depository shall enter in its records the name of the person who has surrendered the certificate of security as the beneficial owner, as well as the name of the participant from whom it has received intimation under sub-regulation (2), and shall send an intimation of the same to the participant.

(7) The issuer shall maintain a record of certificates of securities which have been dematerialised.

Reconciliation

75. The issuer or its agent shall reconcile the records of dematerialised securities with all the securities issued by the issuer, on a daily basis:

Provided that where the State or the Central Government is the issuer of Government securities, the depository shall, on a daily basis, reconcile the records of the dematerialised securities.

Audit

76. (1) Every issuer shall submit audit report on a quarterly basis, starting from September 30, 2003, to the concerned stock exchanges audited by a qualified Chartered Accountant or a practicing Company Secretary, for the purposes of reconciliation of the total issued capital, listed capital and capital held by depositories in dematerialized form, the details of changes in share capital during the quarter and the in-principle approval obtained by the issuer from all the stock exchanges where it is listed in respect of such further issued capital.

(2) The audit report under sub-regulation (1) shall also give the updated status of the register of members of the issuer and confirm that securities have been dematerialized as per requests within twenty one days from the date of receipt of requests by the issuer and where the dematerialization has not been effected within the said stipulated period, the report shall disclose the reasons for such delay.

(3) The issuer shall immediately bring to the notice of the depositories and the stock exchanges, any difference observed in its issued, listed, and the capital held by depositories in dematerialised form.

Connectivity

77. Every issuer or its agent shall establish continuous electronic means of communication with the depository with which it has entered into an agreement.

Information

78. Every issuer whose securities have been declared as eligible for dematerialisation in a depository shall give information to the depository about book closures, record dates, dates for the payment of interest or dividend, dates for annual general meetings and other meetings, dates for redemption of debentures, dates for conversion of debentures and warrants, call money dates and such other information at the time and in the manner as may be specified by the depository in its bye-laws or agreement:

Provided that no such information would be required to be given to the depository where the State or the Central Government is the issuer of Government securities.

Manner of creating pledge or hypothecation

79. (1) If a beneficial owner intends to create a pledge on a security owned by him he shall make an application to the depository through the participant who has his account in respect of such securities.

(2) The participant after satisfaction that the securities are available for pledge shall make a note in its records of the notice of pledge and forward the application to the depository.

(3) Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the depository shall after concurrence of the pledgee through its participant, create and record the pledge and send an intimation of the same to the participants of the pledger and the pledgee.

(4) On receipt of the intimation under sub-regulation (3) the participants of both the pledger and the pledgee shall inform the pledger and the pledgee respectively of the entry of creation of the pledge.

(5) If the depository does not create the pledge, it shall send along with the reasons an intimation to the participants of the pledger and the pledgee.

(6) The entry of pledge made under sub-regulation (3) may be cancelled by the depository if pledger or the pledgee makes an application to the depository through its participant:

Provided that no entry of pledge shall be cancelled by the depository without prior concurrence of the pledgee.

(7) The depository on the cancellation of the entry of pledge shall inform the participant of the pledger.

(8) Subject to the provisions of the pledge document, the pledgee may invoke the pledge and on such invocation, the depository shall register the pledgee as beneficial owner of such securities and amend its records accordingly.

(9) After amending its records under sub-regulation (8) the depository shall immediately inform the participants of the pledger and pledgee of the change who in turn shall make the necessary changes in their records and inform the pledger and pledgee respectively.

(10) If a beneficial owner intends to create a hypothecation on a security owned by him he may do so in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulations (1) to (9).

(11) The provisions of sub-regulations (1) to (9) shall mutatis mutandis apply in such cases of hypothecation:

Provided that the depository before registering the hypothecatee as a beneficial owner shall obtain the prior concurrence of the hypothecator.

(12) No transfer of security in respect of which a notice or entry of pledge or hypothecation is in force shall be effected by a participant without the concurrence of the pledgee or the hypothecatee, as the case may be.

Investment advice

80. (1) A depository or a participant or any of their employees shall not render, directly or indirectly, any investment advice about any security in the publicly accessible media, whether real-time or non-real-time, unless a disclosure of his interest including long or short position in the said security has been made, while rendering such advice.

(2) In case an employee of the depository or the participant is rendering such advice, he shall also disclose the interest of his dependent family members and the employer including their long or short position in the said security, while rendering such advice.

Appointment of compliance officer

81. A depository and a participant shall appoint a compliance officer who shall be responsible for monitoring the compliance of the Act, rules and regulations, notifications, guidelines, instructions, etc., issued thereunder and for redressal of investors' grievances.

(2) The compliance officer shall immediately and independently report to the Board any non-compliance observed by him.

Equal, fair and transparent access

82. A depository shall ensure equal, unrestricted, transparent and fair access to all persons without any bias towards its associates and related entities.

CHAPTER VIII LISTING OF SECURITIES

Listing

83. (1) Subject to the provisions of applicable laws in force, a depository may apply for listing of its securities on a recognised stock exchange if,—

(a) it is compliant with the provisions of these regulations particularly those relating to ownership and governance;

(b) it has completed three years of continuous depository operations immediately preceding the date of application of listing; and the Board may, without prejudice to any other action which it may take under the Act, take any action against such issuer or its agent under the Depositories Act.

(2) The depository shall conduct inspection of the records of the issuers or agents, as the case may be to ensure that the records of dematerialised securities are reconciled with all the securities issued by the issuer and submit its report to the Board if there is failure by the issuers or agents in such reconciliation of records.

CHAPTER XI MISCELLANEOUS

Power to call for information

94. The Board may from time to time call for any information, documents or records from the depository or its governing board or any shareholder or applicant thereof and from depository participant.

Directions by the Board

95. Without prejudice to exercise of its powers under the provisions of the Act, Depositories Act, 1996 and rules and regulations made thereunder, the Board may, either suo motu or on receipt of any information or during pendency of any inspection, inquiry or investigation or on completion thereof, in the interest of public or trade or investors or the securities market, issue such directions as it deems fit, including but not limited to any or all of the following:—

- (a) directing a person holding equity shares or rights over equity shares in a depository in contravention of these regulations to divest his holding, in such manner as may be specified in the direction;
- (b) directing transfer of any proceeds or securities to the Investor Protection Fund of a depository;
- (c) debarring any depository, any shareholder of such depository, or any associate and agent of such shareholder, or any transferee of shares from such shareholder, or applicant(s), director(s) and key management personnel(s) of the depository from accessing the securities market and/or dealing in securities for such period as may be determined by the Board.

Power to remove difficulties

96. In order to remove any difficulties in the interpretation or application of the provisions of these regulations, the Board shall have the power to issue directions through guidance notes or circulars.

Power to specify procedures, etc. and issue clarifications

97. For the purposes of implementation of these regulations and matters incidental thereto, the Board may specify norms, procedures, processes, manners or guidelines as specified in these regulations, by way of circulars.

Repeal and savings

98. (1) On and from the commencement of these regulations, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996, shall stand repealed.

- (2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken or purported to have been taken or contemplated under the repealed regulations before the commencement of these regulations shall be deemed to have been done or taken or commenced or contemplated under the corresponding provisions of these regulations.
- (3) After the repeal of the regulations referred to in sub-regulation (1), any reference thereto in any regulation, guideline, circular or direction issued by the Board shall be deemed to be a reference to the relevant provisions of these regulations.
