

Dr. Rajani Gupte-Public Interest Director

(Vice Chancellor, Symbiosis International (Deemed University))

Dr. Rajani Gupte is the Vice Chancellor of the Symbiosis International (Deemed University). She has been actively engaged with higher education for over thirty years, both as a professor and researcher. She has taught at many foreign universities as well, including the Oakland University, Michigan, US, and Bremen University of Applied Sciences, Germany. She joined Symbiosis as a founding member of the Symbiosis Institute of International Business in 1992. She was invited to be a part of a committee of eminent economists formed by NITI Aayog to interact with the Honorable Prime Minister on "Economic Policy: The Road Ahead" in January 2018, and has also been invited by NITI Aayog to be on the Consultation Group of Experts for the Education Vertical. She received her Doctorate degree in Economics from the prestigious Gokhale Institute of Economics and Politics, Pune.