(vii) an institution engaged in providing financial services established outside India and approved by the Central Government.

Grant of certificate of registration

7. After considering the application under regulation 3, with reference to the qualifications specified in regulation 6, if the Board is satisfied that the company established by the sponsor is eligible to act as depository, it may grant a certificate of registration in Form B to the depository subject to the following, namely:-

- (a) the depository shall pay the registration fee specified in part A of the Second Schedule in the manner specified in Part B thereof, within fifteen days of receipt of intimation from the Board;
- (b) the depository shall comply with the provisions of the Act, the Depositories Ordinance, the bye-laws, agreements and these regulations;
- (c) the depository shall not carry on any activity other than that of a depository unless the activity is incidental to the activity of the depository;
- (d) the sponsor shall, at all times, hold at least fifty one per cent of the equity capital of the depository and the balance of the equity capital of the depository shall be held by its participants;
- (e) no participant shall at any time, hold more than five per cent of the equity capital of the depository;
- (f) if any information previously submitted by the depository or the sponsor to the Board is found to be false or misleading in any material particular, or if there is any change in such information, the depository shall forthwith inform the Board in writing;
- (g) the depository shall redress the grievances of the participants and the beneficial owners within thirty days of the date of receipt of any complaint from a participant or a beneficial owner and keep the Board informed about the number and the nature of redressals;
- (h) the depository shall make an application for commencement of business under regulation 14 within one year from the date of grant of certificate of registration under this regulation; and
- (i) the depository shall amend its bye-laws from time to time as may be directed by the Board.

Payment of annual fee

8. A depository who has been granted a certificate of registration under regulation 7, shall pay annual fee specified in Part A of the Second Schedule in the manner specified in Part B thereof.

Procedure where certificate of registration is not granted

9. (1) Where an application for the grant of certificate of registration under regulation 3 does not satisfy the requirements specified in regulation 7, the Board shall reject the application after giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard.

(2) The decision of the Board to reject the application shall be communicated to the applicant in writing within thirty days of such decision, stating therein the grounds on which the application has been rejected.

CHAPTER III

CERTIFICATE OF COMMENCEMENT OF BUSINESS

Application for grant of certificate of commencement of business

10. A depository which has been granted a certificate of registration under regulation 7, shall within one year from the date of issue of such certificate make an application to the Board for commencement of business in Form C.

Application to conform to the requirements

11. Any application in Form C which is not complete in all respects and does not conform to instructions specified therein shall be rejected:

Provided that before rejecting any such application, the applicant shall be given in writing an opportunity to remove within thirty days of the date of communication in this regard, the objections indicated by the Board.

Provided further that the Board may, on being satisfied that it is necessary to extend the period specified in the first proviso, extend such period by such further time as it thinks necessary in order to enable the applicant to remove the objections indicated by the Board.

60. (1) Before ordering an inspection or investigation under regulation 59, the Board shall give not less than 10 days notice to the depository, participant, beneficial owner, issuer or its agent, as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-regulation (1), where the Board is satisfied that in the interest of the investors no such notice should be given, it may, by an order in writing direct that such inspection be taken up without such notice.

(3) During the course of an inspection or investigation, the depository, a participant, a beneficial owner, an issuer or its agent against whom the inspection or investigation is being carried out shall be bound to discharge his obligation as provided in regulation 61.

Obligations on inspection by the Board

61. (1) It shall be the duty of the depository, a participant, a beneficial owner, an issuer or its agent whose affairs are being inspected or investigated, and of every director, officer and employee thereof, to produce to the inspecting officer such books, securities, accounts, records and other documents in its custody or control and furnish him with such statements and information relating to his activities as a depository, a participant, a beneficial owner, an issuer or its agent, as the inspecting officer may require, within such reasonable period as the inspecting officer may specify.

(2) The depository, a participant, a beneficial owner, an issuer or its agent shall allow the inspecting officer to have reasonable access to the premises occupied by him or by any other person on his behalf and also extend reasonable facility for examining any books, records, documents and computer data in the possession of the depository, a participant, a beneficial owner, an issuer or its agent or such other person and also provide copies of documents or other materials which, in the opinion of the inspecting officer are relevant for the purposes of the inspection.

(3) The inspecting officer, in the course of inspection or investigation, shall be entitled to examine or to record the statements of any director, officer or employee of the depository, a participant, a beneficial owner, an issuer or its agent.

(4) It shall be the duty of every director, officer or employee of the depository, a participant, a beneficial owner, an issuer or its agent to give to the inspecting officer all assistance in connection with the inspection, which the inspecting officer may reasonably require.

Submission of Report to the Board

62. The inspecting officer shall, as soon as possible, on completion of the inspection or investigation as the case may be, submit a report to the Board:
Provided that if directed to do so by the Board, he may submit interim reports.

Communication of findings etc.

63. (1) The Board shall, after consideration of the inspection report or the investigation report referred to in regulation 62, communicate the findings of the inspecting officer to the depository, participant, issuer or its agent, as the case may be, and give him an opportunity of being heard.

(2) On receipt of the reply if any, from the depository, participant, issuer or its agent, as the case may be, the Board may call upon him to take such measures as the Board may deem fit in the interest of the securities market and for due compliance with the provisions of the Act, the Depositories Ordinance, regulations, the bye-laws and agreements.

CHAPTER VII

PROCEDURE FOR ACTION IN CASE OF DEFAULT

Suspension of certificate

64. The Board may suspend the certificate of registration granted to a depository or a participant, if such depository or participant:-

- (a) contravenes any of the provisions of the Act, the Depositories Ordinance, the bye-laws, agreements and these regulations ;
- (b) fails to furnish any information relating to its activity as a depository or participant as required under these regulations;
- (c) does not furnish the information called for by the Board under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 18 of the Depositories Ordinance or furnishes information which is false or misleading in any material particular;
- (d) does not co-operate in any inspection or investigation or enquiry conducted by the Board;
- (e) fails to comply with any direction of the Board issued under section 18 of the Depositories Ordinance; or
- (f) fails to pay the annual fee referred to in regulation 8.

Cancellation of certificate

65. The Board may cancel the certificate of registration granted to a depository or participant if such depository or participant

- a) is guilty of fraud, or has been convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude; or
- b) has been guilty of repeated defaults of the nature specified in regulation 64.

Explanation : In this regulation, "fraud" has the same meaning as is assigned to it in section 17 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872 (9 of 1872).

Manner of making order of cancellation or suspension

66.(1) No order of suspension or cancellation of certificate of registration shall be issued by the Board against a depository or a participant, except after holding an enquiry by an officer of the Board, authorised in this regard in accordance with the procedure specified in sub-regulations (2) to (8).

(2) For the purpose of holding an enquiry the Board may appoint one or more enquiry officer.

(3) The enquiry officer shall issue to the depository or the participant, as the case may be, a notice at its registered office or the principal place of its business, setting out the grounds on which action is proposed to be taken against him and calling upon him to show cause against such action within a period of fourteen days from the date of receipt of the notice.

(4) The depository or the participant, as the case may be, shall, within fourteen days from the date of receipt of such notice, furnish to the enquiry officer a written reply, together with copies of documentary or other evidence relied on by it or sought by the Board from the depository or participant, as the case may be.

(5) The enquiry officer shall give a reasonable opportunity of hearing to the depository or participant, as the case may be, to enable it to make submissions in support of its reply furnished under sub-regulation (4) of this regulation.

(6) Before the enquiry officer, the depository, a participant, or as the case may be, may either appear in person or through any person duly authorised by the depository or participant;

Provided that no lawyer or advocate shall be permitted to represent the depository or participant, as the case may be, at the enquiry;

Provided further that where a lawyer or an advocate has been appointed by the Board as a presenting officer under sub-regulation (7) it shall be lawful for the depository or participant, as the case may be, to present its case through a lawyer or advocate.

(7) The enquiry officer may, if he considers it necessary, ask the Board to appoint a presenting officer to present its case.

(8) The enquiry officer shall, after taking into account all relevant facts and submissions made by the depository or participant, as the case may be, submit a report to the Board and recommend the penal action, if any, to be taken against the depository or participant, as the case may be, as also the ground on which the proposed action is justified.

Show-cause
notice and order

67. (1) On receipt of the report from the enquiry officer, the Board shall consider the same and issue to the depository or participant, as the case may be, a show-cause notice as to why the penal action as proposed by the enquiry office should not be taken against it.

(2) The depository or participant, as the case may be, shall, within fourteen days of the date of the receipt of show-cause notice, send a reply to the Board.

(3) The Board, after considering the reply of the depository or participant, as the case may be, if received within a period of fourteen days shall as soon as possible but not later than thirty days from the date of receipt of the reply or the date of hearing, if any, which ever is later, pass such order as it deems fit including an order for the suspension or cancellation of the certificate.

(4) Every order passed under sub-regulation (3) shall be self-contained and shall give reasons for the conclusions stated therein including the justification for the penalty if any, imposed by that order.

(5) The Board shall send to the depository or participant, as the case may be, a copy of the order made under sub-regulation (3).

Effect of suspension and cancellation of certificate

68. (1) On and from the date of the suspension of the certificate, the depository or participant, as the case may be, shall cease to carry on any activity as a depository or as a participant, during the period of suspension, and shall be subject to the directions of the Board with regard to any records, documents or securities that may be in its custody or control, relating to its activities as depository or participant.

(2) On and from the date of cancellation of the certificate, the depository or participant shall, with immediate effect, cease to carry on any activity as a depository or participant, and shall be subject to the directions of the Board with regard to the transfer of any records, documents or securities that may be in its custody or control, relating to its activities as depository or participant.

Publication of
suspension or cancellation

69. The order of suspension or cancellation of certificate of registration issued under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 67 shall be published by the Board in at least two daily newspapers.

(15 of 1992) read with section 25 of the Depositories Act, 1996 (22 of 1996) the Board hereby makes the following regulations to amend the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996.

1. (i) These regulations may be called the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) (Second Amendment) Regulations, 1997.
(ii) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
2. In regulation 29, the following be added after sub-regulation (I) and before sub-regulation (2) :-
Provided that no agreement shall be required to be entered into where the depository itself is an issuer of securities.
3. In regulation 58, sub-regulations (1) to (12) be substituted by the following new sub-regulations (1) to (11) :-
 - (1) if a beneficial owner intends to create a pledge on a security owned by him he shall make an application to the depository through the participant who has his account in respect of such securities.
 - (2) The participant after satisfaction that the securities are available for pledge shall make a note in its records of the notice of pledge and forward the application to the depository.
 - (3) The depository after confirmation from the pledgor that the securities are available for pledge with the pledgor shall within fifteen days of the receipt of the application create and record the pledge and send an intimation of the same to the participants of the pledgor and the pledgees.
 - (4) On receipt of the intimation under sub-regulation (3) the participants of both the pledgor and the pledgee shall inform the pledgor and the pledgee respectively of the entry of creation of the pledge.
 - (5) If the depository does not create the pledge, it shall send along with the reasons an intimation to the participants of the pledgor and the pledgee.

- (6) The entry of pledge made under sub-regulation (3) may be cancelled by the depository if pledgor of the pledgee makes an application to the depository through its participant.
Provided that no entry of pledge shall be cancelled by the depository without prior concurrence of the pledgee.
- (7) The depository on the cancellation of the entry of pledge shall inform the participant of the pledgor.
- (8) Subject to the provisions of the pledge document, the pledgee may invoke the pledge and on such invocation, the depository shall register the pledgee as beneficial owner of such securities and amend its records accordingly.
- (9) After amending its records under sub-regulation (8) the depository shall immediately inform the participants of the pledgor and pledgee of the change who in turn shall make the necessary changes in their records and inform the pledgor and pledgee respectively.
- (10) (a) If a beneficial owner intends to create a hypothecation on a security owned by him he may do so in accordance with the provisions of sub-regulations (1) to (9).
(b) The provisions of sub-regulations (1) to (9) shall mutadis mutandis apply in such cases of hypothecation.
Provided that the depository before registering the hypothecatee as a beneficial owner shall obtain the prior concurrence of the hypothecator.
- (11) No transfer of security in respect of which a notice or entry of pledge or hypothecation is in force shall be effected by a participant without the concurrence of the pledgee or the hypothecatee as the case may be.
